Marcus Capers
(G, 6-4, 172, FR)
Winter Haven, Fla. (Montverde Academy)

A two-time All-State honoree, Capers played one season at Montverde Academy after transferring from Lake Region HS prior to his senior season. As a senior the versatile guard averaged 16 points, eight rebounds and five assists per game.

Klay Thompson
(G, 6-6, 187, FR)
Ladera Ranch, Calif. (Santa Margarita Catholic HS)

The 2007-08 Division III State Player of the Year, Thompson led Santa Margarita Catholic HS to a State Championship as a senior. A sharp shooter, Thompson picked up numerous honors as a senior, including Trinity League MVP, first-team Best in the West and EA Sports Second Team All-American accolades.

Mike Harthun
(G, 6-3, 180, FR)
Medford, Ore. (South Medford HS)

A four-year letterwinner at South Medford HS, Harthun helped lead his team to two-straight State Championship game appearances, winning the title as a junior. Known for his long distance shooting, Harthun ranks second in SMHS history with 1,949 career points. A three-time All-State honoree, Harthun averaged 19.3 points and 5.7 assists per game in his four years of high school basketball.

Nikola Koprivica
(G, 6-6, 216, JR)
Belgrade, Serbia (Sport Grammer School)

A two-year letterwinner at WSU, Koprivica is looking forward to a healthy year after injuring his knee in January of his freshman season. With his size, driving ability and experience, Koprivica will be expected to make an impact in the backcourt. Koprivica spent part of his summer in Latvia playing for the Serbian U20 team which took home the gold at the European Championship.

Abe Lodwick
(G, 6-7, 200, RS-FR)
Bend, Ore. (Mountain View HS)

Lodwick spent the 2007-08 season as an important contributor each day at practice while redshirting. With his length and smooth left-handed shooting ability, Lodwick is a dangerous addition to the Cougar backcourt. A four-year letterwinner at Mountain View HS, Lodwick was named All-State as both a junior and senior.

10
Taylor Rochestie
(G, 6-1, 193, RS-SR)
Santa Barbara, Calif. (Tulane University)

The WSU single-season record holder for minutes played, Rochestie will carry a heavy load as the returning point guard. One of the best ball handlers in the country, Rochestie ranked 10th in the nation last year with a 2.8 assist/turnover ratio. One of several lefties on the team, Rochestie has become dangerous from 3-point range and averaged a team third-best 10.4 points per game last season.

11
Aron Baynes
(C, 6-10, 250, SR)
Cairns, Australia (Cairns State HS)

One of the most experienced players on the team, Baynes returns as the starting center. Baynes brings a tremendous amount of size to the Cougar frontcourt and averaged a team third-best 10.4 points per outing last season. Baynes continues to improve his strength and is one of the most consistent shooters on the court after shooting .600 from the field last season.

13
Fabian Boeke
(C, 6-11, 223, SO)
Hamburg, Germany (Urspring Basketball Academy)

Although a member of last season's team, Boeke missed the entire season due to NCAA ruling and lost a year of eligibility. With his length and shooting ability, Boeke's presence is hard to match up with. Prior to coming to WSU, Boeke played on the German U20 national team and was a member of the German A2 men's national team.

14
James Watson
(F, 6-7, 210, FR)
Atoka, Okla. (Stringtown HS)

A three-year letterwinner at Stringtown HS, Watson led his team to the Class 'B' State Championship as a senior. He was a two-time all-conference honoree. A tremendous shot blocker and rebounder, Watson will look to add athletic ability at the small forward position for the Cougars.

20
John Allen
(G, 6-0, 181, FR)
Brier, Wash. (Mountlake Terrace HS)

Allen earned one letter at Mountlake Terrace HS after earning two letters at Shorewood HS. A solid point guard, Allen earned all-conference accolades as both a sophomore and junior.

23
DeAngelo Casto
(F, 6-8, 229, FR)
Spokane, Wash. (Ferris HS)

Casto earned two letters at Ferris HS after transferring from Freeman HS prior to his junior season. A gifted shot blocker, Casto did not lose a game as a member of the FHS team, as the team holds a 58-game winning streak heading into the 2008-09 season. The reigning 4A State player of the year, Casto averaged 14.7 points and 11.1 rebounds in his two seasons at FHS, adding 4.0 blocks per game as a senior.

32
Daven Harmeling
(F, 6-7, 227, RS-SR)
Grand Junction, Colo. (Fruita Monument HS)

Harmeling enters his fifth season with the Cougars in 2008-09, serving an instrumental role as a team leader. Last season Harmeling averaged 5.6 points and 2.2 rebounds per game while ranking third on the team with 35 made 3-pointers. A small forward with a smooth shot, Harmeling is a threat behind the 3-point arc.

40
Charlie Enquist
(F, 6-10, 222, RS-FR)
Edmonds, Wash. (Kings HS)

A two-year letterwinner at Kings HS, Enquist redshirted last season as a true freshman at WSU. An important part of practices, Enquist has added strength to his tall frame which helps him contribute down low.

44
Nick Witherill
(G, 6-2, 176, FR)
Phoenix, Ariz. (Highland HS)

Witherill earned a total of four varsity basketball letters, including one, as a senior, at Gilbert Highland HS. A four-time All-State honoree, Witherill set the school record for points in a season as a junior while at Saguaro HS. A steady ball handler and shooter, Witherill averaged 16 points, five assists and three steals per game as a senior.

52
Caleb Forrest
(F, 6-8, 223, SR)
Pagosa Springs, Colo. (Pagosa Springs HS)

Known for his hustle, Forrest returns as a vital part of the Cougar frontcourt. A three-year letterwinner at WSU, Forrest averaged 3.4 points and 2.2 rebounds per game as a junior. Forrest has the ability to come up big in important games. Last season his Pac-10 high for points (eight) came in WSU's games against California, UCLA and Arizona, three of the Cougars' seven league losses.

OVERVIEW

WSU Head Coach Tony Bennett's take: "We've got four seniors that are returning that I think are all pretty good leaders, having been involved in our program for a number of years. They know what's important and they've worked hard trying to build the foundation here, which is so important since we have such a discrepancy in our team with four seniors, a junior and the rest being first-year players. The experience factor and the leadership of those seniors will be more critical than ever before because it's pretty much first-year guys, freshmen and seniors. The seniors will be leaned upon heavily to establish the work ethic and the accountability from a peer standpoint which will all be important to how this team will do. We're going to need some of those first-year guys to contribute and that's the exciting thing for them in terms of opportunity. It's a chance for these young guys to get some experience and as we've said in the past, that's why I think the last couple of years have been pretty fruitful here at WSU, because those guys that played all those games got a lot of experience as young guys and when they became upper classmen it showed. We have a mix of those young guys and we will blend it together with some of the seniors that have that experience. Our hope is that it will be a nice combination. We're looking for a solid year this year, of course, and then trying to build upon the foundation that's been laid."

This season's Cougar basketball squad returns five letterwinners and three squad members from last season's school record-tying 26-win team which reached the NCAA Sweet 16 for the first time in school history. Joining the eight returnees on third-year head coach Tony Bennett's squad are seven true freshmen looking to replace the voids left by the seven letterwinners lost from 2007-08.

BACKCOURT

Bennett's take: "We obviously have lost two significant backcourt players in Kyle Weaver and Derrick Low who played a lot of minutes. Our strength was always our experience the last couple of years and again we'll rely on the experience of Taylor Rochestie who's played in the program a couple years. We're hopeful that Nikola Koprivica's knee will be full strength and he'll have a very healthy junior year and add some experience. After that in the backcourt we have first-year players starting with Abe Lodwick, who's a redshirt freshman, and then all of the incoming freshmen who play in the backcourt. We have experience with Taylor and Nikola but the rest will be guys that aren't experienced that will have to learn very quickly and on the fly and get experience as they go."

While redshirt senior Taylor Rochestie returns at point guard, Bennett will look to replace Pacific-10 Conference honorees Derrick Low and Kyle Weaver in the backcourt. Both four-year starters, Low and Weaver became the 28th and 29th players in school history to reach the career 1,000-point plateau, respectively, while ranking first and second on the team in scoring in 2007-08. Rochestie carried a big load for the Cougars at the point in 2007-08, setting the WSU season record with 1,223 minutes played while ranked tied for third with 10.4 points per game. A tremendous ball handler, Rochestie ranked 10th in the nation with a 2.8 assists/turnover ratio last season, dishing out 4.7 assists per outing.

Junior Nikola Koprivica is the only other returning member of the backcourt. Koprivica suffered a knee injury as a freshman in 2006-07 but hopes to be back to full health prior to this season. Last season he averaged 2.5 points and nearly one assist in 11.2 minutes per outing. A native of Belgrade, Koprivica spent his summer winning the gold as team captain for Serbia at the U20 European Championship.

Redshirt freshman Abe Lodwick will fight for playing time after spending his true freshman season as an important part daily practices. Joining the hunt for playing opportunities will be freshmen John Allen, Marcus Capers, Mike Harthun, Klay Thompson and Nick Witherill.

FRONTCOURT

Bennett's take: "In the frontcourt there's more experience retuning with Aron Baynes, Daven Harmeling and Caleb Forrest. Obviously we're without Robbie Cowgill who played a lot of minutes, but we have a little more returning down low. Similar to the backcourt, we'll rely on the guys who've played and there will be some great competition with some of the newer guys. Basically, we'll look to the guys who've got game and Pac-10 experience under their belts and can provide some leadership and know-how. We have expectations for some of the first-year guys that will have to jump in there, there will be opportunities for them. Once again it will be very competitive in practice for opportunity to play."

Starting center and senior Aron Baynes returns as the nucleus for the more experienced frontcourt of the Cougars in 2008-09. Complementing Baynes at forward are redshirt senior Daven Harmeling and senior Caleb Forrest returning after strong contributions last season. With 644 career points, Baynes has the potential to become the 30th Cougar to score 1,000 points this season. Last season he was tied for third on the team with 10.4 points per game, while leading the team with 6.0 boards an outing. Dependable in the paint, Baynes shot .600 from the field as a junior.

A versatile player who can shoot the three, Harmeling averaged 5.6 points and 2.2 rebounds per game last season, hitting 35 3-pointers in 21.1 minutes a game. Forrest played 34 of the team's 35 games averaging 3.4 points and 2.0 boards in 12.0 minutes of action per outing.

Sophomore Fabian Boeke missed last season and lost a year of eligibility due to NCAA rulings, but remained a squad member, while redshirt freshman Charlie Enquist sat out last season but practiced with the team on a daily basis. Joining the group down low are freshmen DeAngelo Casto and James Watson.

THE SCHEDULE

Bennett's take: "I think this year our nonconference season will really reveal where we're at, we will be battle tested. We're going to see the areas we need to improve and we're also going to find out what we're made out of. I think with the newcomers to our program, and obviously some of the returners, we need to know that. It's better learning it before Pac-10 play begins, that's why we're playing a very strong nonconference schedule. In my six years at WSU this will be the most challenging nonconference schedule we will have faced. The Pac-10 will always be excellent, there's been a constant and that's high-level basketball. There have been a couple of banner years, last year being one of them, if you look at the talent that came into our league and left our league. Once again there will be excellent young talent. It's such a highly recruited league and that shows with the young kids we had that went in the NBA Draft. I think some teams that have experience back will really be good. It will be a hard-fought, well-balanced league once again and I think there will be a lot of highly contested games. I don't know if there's a dominant team but I think there's a lot of really good teams."

The Cougars will play at least 20 games against fellow 2008 postseason participants this coming season, hosting seven NCAA Tournament participants from last season in Pullman. In nonconference action, WSU hosts seven games at Friel Court, highlighted by back-to-back contests with Baylor (Dec. 6) and Gonzaga (Dec. 10).

Although just two games will be played on an opponents' home court in nonconference action, WSU will take on a tough road schedule as well. The Cougars will spend Thanksgiving at the Legends Classic in Newark, N.J. where they will go up against two of the following teams; Mississippi State, and Pittsburgh or Texas Tech (Nov. 28-29). Two days after Christmas WSU takes on former Stanford coach, Trent Johnson, and his LSU squad in Baton Rouge, La. (Dec. 27).

From there Pac-10 play begins with three-straight home games as the Cougars host Washington (Jan. 3), California (Jan. 8) and Stanford (Jan. 10) at Friel Court. Five of WSU's first seven conference games will take place in Pullman as it heads down to Oregon to face Oregon State (Jan. 15) and Oregon (Jan. 17) before returning home to host UCLA (Jan. 22) and USC (Jan. 24). After four-straight road games (at Arizona State, Jan. 29; at Arizona, Jan. 31; at Stanford, Feb. 5; at California, Feb. 7), the Cougs return home to host Oregon (Feb. 12) and Oregon State (Feb. 14).

WSU heads to USC (Feb. 19) and UCLA (Feb. 21) in mid-February before closing its home season with Arizona (Feb. 26) and Arizona State (Feb. 28). The Cougars' regular season ends at Washington (March 7) before the Pac-10 Tournament in Los Angeles, March 11-14.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

Bennett's take: "Certainly you want to establish your home court. I felt like last year we let a few slip away at home with a veteran team which was discouraging. That's an area where you have to be as good as you can be. In our league home court was so valuable last year just overall, the year before we established a good home court record and we want to get back to that. Having a few more home games in the nonconference hopefully will get us some momentum. We have some high quality home games which will really battle test us."

The Cougars enter their 36th-straight season at Friel Court. Last year 120,083 fans flocked to Friel Court for 13 WSU games, marking the most in WSU history. The Cougars averaged 9,237 fans, ranking fourth in the Pac-10. The home attendance average was also up nearly 2,500 fans from the previous season.

2008-09 COACHING AND SUPPORT STAFF

Tony Bennett

Head Coach
Third Season
Wisconsin-Green Bay, 1992

Following the fourth-best two-year start by a head coach in NCAA history, Tony Bennett enters his third season at the helm for Washington State University in 2008-09. In his second season after taking the reigns from his father, Dick Bennett, the younger Bennett put together his second-consecutive 26-win season with a 26-9 mark, tying the school record for wins in a season, while becoming the first WSU head coach to take his team to the NCAA Tournament in back-to-back seasons.

After spending one year as an assistant and another two as an associate head coach under his father at WSU, Bennett became the 16th man in school history to lead the program following the 2005-06 season. At age 39, the Green Bay, Wis., native ranks among the youngest head coaches in Division I college basketball, but carries nine years of Division I coaching experience, including four years as an assistant at Wisconsin and three years as an assistant coach and associate head coach at Washington State.

Tony Bennett with Elson S. Floyd, president of Washington State University.

Celebrated as a tremendous recruiter, motivator, teacher and mentor, Bennett knows what it's like to be successful. In college, Bennett earned numerous accolades as a point guard playing under his father at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay. As one of the top collegiate players, Bennett was chosen to participate in the 1991 Pan American Games, in which Team USA took home the Bronze medal. He followed up his collegiate career as the 35th overall pick in the 1992 NBA Draft which led to a three-year career with the Charlotte Hornets. Following a playing and coaching career in New Zealand, Bennett returned to his home state to serve as an assistant at the University of Wisconsin alongside his father. In 2003-04, Bennett followed his father to the Palouse as an assistant coach and was later promoted to associate head coach.

Bennett has helped put WSU basketball back on the map in his two years on the Palouse. Chosen to finish last in the Pacific-10 Conference prior to the 2006-07 season, the Cougars surprised everyone, placing second in the league with a 13-5 mark. WSU's second-place finish equaled the best by WSU in Pac-10 history, matching the finish by the 1982-83 squad. Showing that his first season was not a fluke, Bennett led the 2007-08 squad to an 11-7 Pac-10 record as the team tied USC for third place in the league. Washington State's 26 overall victories in each of the last two seasons match the most in school history, equaling the wins of the NCAA runner-up 1940-41 team.

In Bennett's first two seasons the Cougars reached the NCAA Tournament for just the fifth and sixth times in school history, while the 2007 bid marked the first tournament appearance since 1994. WSU also posted its first NCAA Tournament win since 1983 in 2007, defeating Oral Roberts, 70-54, March 15 in Sacramento, Calif., before falling to Vanderbilt, 78-74 in double-overtime in the second round. The following season Washington State made its first appearance in the Sweet 16 after putting on two of the greatest defensive performances in victories over Winthrop (71-40) and No. 15 Notre Dame (61-41) in the first and second rounds, respectively. WSU bowed out of the tournament after falling to No. 1 North Carolina, 68-47, in the NCAA East Regional Semifinal.

For his turnaround season in 2006-07, Bennett became the most decorated Pac-10 coach in a single season, taking home national coach of the year accolades from The Naismith, Associated Press, The Sporting News, United States Basketball Writers Association, Basketball Times, CBS/Chevrolet, Collegehoops.net, Collegeinsider.com (Jim Phelan Award) and Rivals.com. He also became the first WSU coach to be named Pacific-10 Conference Coach of the Year by the league since 1991 and picked up United States Basketball Writers Association District 9, National Association of Basketball Coaches District 14 and Collegeinsider.com Pacific-10 coach of the year honors.

Also in 2006-07, Bennett guided his young Cougar squad to wins over five ranked opponents including No. 18 Gonzaga (Dec. 5), No. 7 Arizona (Jan. 6), No. 20 Arizona (Feb. 1), No. 25 Stanford (Feb. 8) and No. 23 USC (March 3). The five wins over ranked opponents matched the most in school history, equaling the 1994-95 team. The following year, the Cougars picked up three wins over ranked opponents including No. 19 Gonzaga (Dec. 5), No. 24 Arizona State (Jan. 26) and No. 15 Notre Dame (March 22). The Cougs were also 12-8 against teams that competed in the 2008 NCAA Tournament. Two WSU opponents reached the Final Four (UCLA and UNC).

Highlighting the 2007-08 season were the Cougars' first Associated Press preseason ranking in school history (10th) and their highest ranking in school history (No. 4, Dec. 24-Jan.13), while their win Jan. 20 marked the first WSU victory over Oregon in 13 games. WSU completed the sweep of the Ducks on Feb. 16 in its first victory at McArthur Court in 13 seasons.

In his first two years as head coach, two of Bennett's key recruits from his first year as an assistant coach, Derrick Low and Kyle Weaver, received numerous awards including All-Pacific-10 Conference First Team accolades in 2007, making them the first WSU duo to earn all-conference first team honors since 1995-96. The duo earned all-league honors once again in 2008 as Weaver was named to the second team and Low earned third team accolades. Aron Baynes was an all-conference honorable mention honoree. The Pac-10 brought back its all-defensive team in 2008 as Weaver was named to the All-Pac-10 Defensive Team and Robbie Cowgill was named honorable mention. Weaver was taken by the Charlotte Bobcats as the 38th overall pick in the second round of the 2008 NBA Draft.

Low and Weaver capped off their solid junior seasons by being selected to represent the United States at the 2007 Pan American Games in Brazil, in which Team USA finished fifth. Two other Bennett recruits represented their countries in international play as Aron Baynes played for Australia and Thomas Abercrombie suited up for New Zealand in the 2007 World University Games.

Under Bennett's guidance in 2006-07, redshirt sophomore Daven Harmeling became just the second Cougar to receive Pac-10 Player of the Week accolades twice (Jan. 29-Feb. 4, Dec. 4-10) after his performances against No. 20 Arizona (Feb. 1) and No. 18 Gonzaga (Dec. 5).

Noted as a players' coach, Bennett puts an emphasis on working hard both on the court and in the classroom. A record five Cougars earned Pac-10 Men's Basketball All-Academic honors in 2007-08, bettering the previous record of three set in 2006-07. Senior Robbie Cowgill, and redshirt-juniors Daven Harmeling and Taylor Rochestie were selected to the first team in 2008, while junior Aron Baynes and sophomore Nikola Koprivica earned second team honors. Cowgill went on to earn a spot on the ESPN The Magazine District VIII All-Academic First Team and to earn the Pac-10 Scholar Athlete of the Year award. In 2006-07 Baynes, Cowgill and Harmeling were each named to the league's first team.

"I have known the Bennett family for over 25 years, having played college basketball for Coach (Dick Bennett) at Wisconsin-Stevens Point. Because of my relationship with Dick and Tony, I have followed with great interest, the revival of Washington State basketball. I couldn't be happier."

—Terry Porter, 17-year NBA veteran; two-time NBA All-Star; current head coach, Phoenix Suns

In his three seasons prior to becoming head coach, Bennett served as an integral part of a staff that saw the Cougars post several historic victories, set or tie a pair of school records and lead the Pac-10 in scoring defense twice.

In Bennett's first season on the Palouse (2003-04), the Cougars broke 12 losing streaks and captured their first road sweep of UCLA and USC in WSU history. The following season the Crimson and Gray took down No. 11 Arizona in Tucson to break a 38-game losing streak against the Wildcats and halt a 48-game skid overall against top 25 teams. Then, a win over Stanford in March of 2005 marked the first home-and-home sweep of the Cardinal since 1992-93. The 2005-06 campaign brought two wins over a nationally ranked Washington squad, recording the Cougars' first home-and-home sweep of the Huskies since 1994. The win at Friel Court marked the first home win over a ranked opponent since No. 25 California in 1997.

Bennett has proven himself to be an excellent recruiter. While at Washington State he has recruited student-athletes that have been honored by the Pac-10 nine times, earned 10 spots on conference academic teams and earned three Pac-10 Player of the Week awards.

Bennett came to Washington State from Wisconsin where he spent four seasons with the Badgers, highlighted by a Final Four appearance in 2000, a run to the Sweet Sixteen in 2003 and a share of Big 10 Conference titles in 2002 and 2003. His responsibilities included recruiting, player development and summer camps. At Wisconsin, Bennett was fortunate to work under his father, Dick Bennett, Brad Soderberg and current head coach Bo Ryan.

While at Wisconsin, Bennett played a significant role in recruiting Devin Harris, Kirk Penney, Alando Tucker, and Brian Butch. Harris, the first team All-Big Ten selection and 2004 Big Ten Player of the Year, was the fifth overall pick in the 2004 NBA Draft. He was also a member of the 2006 NBA Western Conference Champion Dallas Mavericks. In 2008 he was traded to the New Jersey Nets.

Penney, an Olympian for New Zealand and one of his country's top players, earned first team All-Big Ten accolades in back-to-back seasons (2002-03). Tucker, a 2002 Top 50 recruit was named a first team All-Big Ten performer in 2006 and 2007 and earned Big Ten Player of the Year and was a first team All-American selection following his senior season (2007). Tucker was taken by the Phoenix Suns with the 29th pick in the 2007 NBA Draft. Butch, a 2003 Top 20 recruit, played in the prestigious McDonald's All-American game and was a 2008 All-Big Ten First Team selection and a 2007 Big Ten Honorable Mention honoree.

Prior to his years at Wisconsin, Bennett had a four year playing and coaching career in Auckland, New Zealand. He played for the North Harbor Kings from 1996-98. During those years abroad, Bennett was a player in 1996; a player/coach in 1997; and head coach during the 1998 and 1999 seasons.

In 1997, Bennett's team reached the New Zealand country final four. The highlight of his coaching career abroad came in 1998 when the North Harbor Kings finished as the national runner-up, marking the highest place finish in the history of the basketball club.

Bennett offers the WSU program the kind of knowledge that only a former NBA player possesses having played three seasons (1992-95) for the Charlotte Hornets before a foot injury ended his professional career in the U.S. Prior to being selected by the Hornets with the 35th pick in the 1992 NBA draft, Bennett enjoyed a storied collegiate career at UW-Green Bay where he played for his father, Dick Bennett from 1989-92.

He finished his collegiate career as the Mid-Continent Conference's all-time leader in points (2,285) and assists (601) while he still ranks as the NCAA's all-time leader in 3-point percentage (.497). Bennett led the Phoenix to one NCAA Tournament berth, two appearances in the NIT and most notably helped UW-Green Bay to a 87-34 (.719) record during his collegiate playing career.

A two-time MCC Player of the Year, Bennett won the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award given to the nation's most outstanding senior under six-feet tall. He was also the 1992 GTE Academic All-American of the Year. Bennett started for Purdue's Gene Keady on the USA bronze medal-winning 1991 Pan-American Games team.

As a high school senior at Green Bay Preble High School in 1988, Bennett was named first team All-State for the second consecutive year and won the coveted honor of Wisconsin's Mr. Basketball.

The Bennett Family

Throughout the state of Wisconsin, and now all across the country, the name Bennett is a prominent one in the college basketball coaching world. Tony Bennett is just one member of a close-knit coaching family which includes his father Dick, sister Kathi, uncle Jack and cousin Nick.

Dick Bennett – The predecessor to his son Tony as head coach at Washington State, Dick holds a 490-306 (.615) career record as head coach at Wisconsin-Stevens Point (1976-85), Wisconsin-Green Bay (1985-95), Wisconsin (1995-2000) and WSU (2003-05). Known for turning around programs, Dick took three of his Wisconsin teams to the NCAA Tournament, including a Final Four appearance in 2000, and one to the NIT. He led UW-Green Bay to five postseason appearances including three trips to the NCAA Tournament. As head coach at UW-Stevens Point, Dick took the team to consecutive NAIA Tournaments his final three seasons.

Jack Bennett – The second Bennett to take the reigns as head coach at UW-Stevens Point, Jack accumulated a record of 480-175 (.655) as a head coach, including high school. Jack served as head coach at UW-Stevens Point for nine seasons, capturing five Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference titles, five NCAA Division III Tournament appearances and two national championships. He retired at the conclusion of the 2004-05 season as the school's all-time winningest coach with a 200-56 record. Jack served as a coach in some capacity for 34 seasons, beginning at Park Falls High School in 1971.

Kathi Bennett – The eldest of Dick Bennett's three children, Kathi made her return to the coaching world in 2008-09 in her first season as an assistant women's basketball coach at Wisconsin. Prior to her three-year hiatus from coaching, Kathi served as the head coach at Indiana (2000-05), Evansville (1996-2000), Wisconsin-Oshkosh (1989-96) and Teiyko Marycrest (1988-89). At UW-Oshkosh, Kathi amassed a 155-32 record, taking her team to six NCAA Division III Tournaments including two Final Four appearances. Her 1996 squad won the DIII national championship with a 31-0 record following a runner-up performance in 1995 (28-3 record). She was named the NCAA DIII Coach of the Year in 1996. Kathi served as an assistant coach for the 2003 Pan American Games team that won a silver medal.

Nick Bennett – The youngest of the Bennett coaching clan, Nick is in his second season as an assistant coach at Florida Gulf Coast University. Nick played basketball for his father Jack at UW-Stevens Point, earning 2004 D-III MVP and 2005 D3Hoops.com first-team All-American honors. Following graduation and his father's retirement, Nick served as a graduate assistant at UW-Stevens Point under head coach Bob Semling in 2005-06. The next season (2006-07) he served as the director of basketball technology at Marquette before landing an assistant coaching position at FGCU prior to the 2007-08 season.

Mike Heideman

Director of Player Development/Operations
Sixth Season
Wisconsin-La Crosse, 1971

Mike Heideman is in his sixth season at Washington State and third as the director of player development and operations. Heideman came to WSU with former head coach Dick Bennett, whom he was an assistant to at Wisconsin-Green Bay from 1986-95.

At Washington State, Heideman's duties include serving as the academic liaison and organizing community events, as well as day-to-day and game day duties.

During his time as an assistant at UWGB, Heideman coordinated all recruiting efforts and played an integral role in UWGB capturing the Mid-Continent Conference regular season title in 1992 and 1994. During that era, Heideman helped guide the Phoenix to Mid-Continent Tournament championships and NCAA Tournament automatic berths in 1991 and 1994. He also helped lead UWGB to a Midwestern Collegiate Conference Tournament title and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1995.

Following the 1994-95 season, Heideman succeeded Bennett as the head coach of the Phoenix and found immediate success. He led UWGB to the Midwestern Collegiate Conference regular season championship and a berth in the NCAA Tournament during his first season (1995-96). His team was ranked as high as 22nd by the Associated Press and 23rd in the USA Today/CNN Coaches poll.

Heideman's efforts earned him the Midwestern Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year in 1996. He was also selected as the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 11 Coach of the Year and Wisconsin Collegiate Coach of the Year in 1996.

During his seven seasons at UWGB, Heideman compiled a record of 110-95. He spent one season as an assistant at Valparaiso before joining the Cougars' staff in April 2003. In his lone season at Valparaiso, the Crusaders won the Mid-Continent Conference regular season title and were selected to play in the 2003 NIT where they fell to Iowa in the opening round.

Prior to UWGB, Heideman was the head men's basketball coach at St. Norbert College (1982-86), an NCAA Division III school in DePere, Wis. He was selected NABC Division III Midwest Region Coach of the Year in 1984 and received the Contribution to Basketball Award for the State of Wisconsin in 1986. His 66-25 mark at St. Norbert's gives him a career record of 176-120 in 11 seasons as a collegiate head coach.

In addition to his collegiate background, Heideman owns high school coaching experience at Xavier in Appleton, Wis., and Augusta (Wis.). In 11 seasons, Heideman compiled a prep record of 158-52.

He earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education from Wisconsin-LaCrosse. He and his wife Sally have two sons, David and Timothy.

Ben Johnson

Assistant Coach
Fifth Season
Wisconsin-Green Bay, 1992

Ben Johnson enters his fifth season as an assistant coach, recruiter and on the floor coach at Washington State University. Long before joining the program in April 2004, Johnson had a history and shared a similar basketball philosophy with the Cougar coaching staff.

Johnson was a teammate of current WSU Head Coach Tony Bennett at Wisconsin-Green Bay for four seasons (1989-92). While at UW-Green Bay, Johnson, a two-year captain, helped lead the Phoenix to one NCAA Tournament and two NIT appearances. During his collegiate career, Johnson was coached by former Washington State University Head Coach Dick Bennett.

After graduating from UW-Green Bay in 1992 with a degree in business communication, Johnson played three years of professional basketball (1993-95) in Cairns, Australia. While overseas, he began his coaching career, working as a basketball youth development officer and state clinician. During those years, he coached and developed hundreds of Australian players at the local, junior and state representative levels.

Johnson returned to his alma mater from 1995-2002, where he served as an assistant coach under current WSU Director of Player Development/Operations, Mike Heideman. In 1996, he helped guide UW-Green Bay to an appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

In 2002, Johnson made his return to Australia, where he was the head coach for the Kuiyam Pride U23 Men. The following year (2003), Johnson served as head coach for both the Kuiyam Pride U23 Men and the Kuiyam Pride Women. The Pride Women competed in the professional Australian Basketball League. Following the 2003 season, Johnson was named Queensland Australian Basketball League Women's Coach of the Year.

Johnson, a native of Stevens Point, Wis., is married to Nicky, a former WNBL player in Townsville, Australia.

Ron Sanchez

Assistant Coach
Sixth Season
SUNY-College at Oneonta, 1997

Ron Sanchez enters his sixth season on the Cougar staff and his third as an assistant coach, primarily working with recruiting and scheduling games. Sanchez spent his first three seasons at Washington State University as the coordinator of basketball operations.

Sanchez has been integral in scheduling and budget management while at Washington State. Last season, the Cougars played three nonconference opponents that participated in the 2007 postseason, including a Cougar Hispanic College Fund Challenge lineup featuring 2007 NIT-participants Mississippi Valley State and Air Force. This season the Cougars boast a home nonconference schedule with three 2008 NCAA Tournament participants.

A graduate of State University of New York, College at Oneonta, Sanchez came to Pullman two seasons as a volunteer coach at Indiana.

With the Hoosiers, Sanchez assisted in self and opponent scouting as well as film exchange. He worked closely with the administrative assistant and video coordinator during his time at Indiana, which included the Hoosiers' national runner-up finish in 2002. While at Indiana, he earned his master's degree in athletic administration/sports management.

Prior to Indiana, Sanchez was an assistant coach at Oneonta State during the 1998-99 season. He was an associate head coach at Delhi College in New York from 1999-2001. In 2001, Delhi posted a 31-2 record, captured the Region III championship and placed fourth at the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Championship.

A native of San Pedro de Macoris, Dominican Republic, Sanchez was named the State University of New York Athletic Conference Player of the Year in 1996. He also earned the Eastern College Athletic Conference Championship Most Valuable Player award in 1996.

Sanchez is married to Tara, a former women's basketball assistant coach at Washington State University and the University of South Florida.

Matt Woodley

Assistant Coach
Third Season
Drake, 2000

Matt Woodley enters his third season on Washington State's bench as an assistant coach. A highly respected recruiter, Woodley primarily deals with recruiting at WSU, while actively involved in practice and game day coaching.

Woodley joined the Cougar family in 2006-07 with over six years of coaching experience under his belt. A graduate of Drake University, Woodley came to the Palouse after a two-year stint as an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee.

With the Blue Raiders and head coach Kermit Davis, Woodley's responsibilities included recruiting, scouting, scheduling and film exchange, as well as the day-to-day preparation of the team. His strong work ethic was evident on the recruiting trail as he helped land several players within Middle Tennessee's young and talented signing class in 2004.

Prior to Middle Tennessee, the intense and knowledgeable Woodley spent over three years as an assistant coach at Denver. With the Pioneers, the West Des Moines, Iowa, native assisted with all aspects of the team, including recruiting, scouting, scheduling and on-floor practices. Before becoming an assistant at Denver, Woodley spent a year as a graduate assistant at Wayne (Neb.) State, where he served as the recruiting coordinator and assisted in game preparation and scouting.

During his three-year career (1998-2000) as a point guard at Drake, Woodley started every game and ended as the Bulldogs' all-time career leader in steals (198) and second in 3-pointers (188). He twice earned honorable mention honors from the Missouri Valley Conference and was named the team's most valuable player his senior year. Woodley graduated in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in elementary education.

Coaching was a family calling for Woodley, whose father and three brothers are all in the business. His father Mike is the head football coach at Grandview College in Iowa, his brother Joe, who was a senior captain on the Iowa State football team, serves as the defensive coordinator at Grandview College, his brother Brian is the head football coach at Johnston high School in Iowa , while his brother Andy, who was the starting point guard at Northern Iowa, is an assistant basketball coach at Creighton University. Woodley is engaged to be married to Monique Dugaw in the spring of 2009.

THE MATT WOODLEY FILE

- Was instrumental in recruiting 2005 Sun Belt Player of the Year Yemi Nicholson and 2005 All-Sun Belt selections Rodney Billups and Antonio Porch at Denver, as team won the league in 2005 and appeared in the NIT.
- Recruited 2008 first-team All-Sun Belt honoree Desmond Yates, 2007 All-Sun Belt honoree Kevin Kanaskie and 2006 honoree Adam Vogelsberg to Middle Tennessee.
- Started every game of this three-year career at Drake.
- Named team MVP his senior year and twice earned Missouri Valley Conference honorable mention.

Ronnie Wideman

Operations Assistant
Third Season
Washington State, 2006

A vital figure in the day-to-day operations of Washington State University men's basketball, Ronnie Wideman enters his third season as the Operations Assistant for the Cougars. In his role, Wideman coordinates team travel, assists with summer camps, oversees facility scheduling, assists with on-campus recruiting visits, and performs other various administrative duties.

Wideman joined the Washington State staff as the operations assistant prior to the 2006-07 season after four years as a student manager with the program. As a student manager (2002-06), Wideman assisted current Cougar assistant coach Ron Sanchez with the day-to-day operations of the program, while supervising 10 volunteer managers.

He also worked as the film exchange coordinator, assisted with team travel and organized player and coach equipment distribution. In addition, Wideman helped with on-campus recruiting visits and summer basketball camps.

A native of Washougal, Wash., Wideman graduated summa cum laude from Washington State University in May 2006, with a degree in health and fitness education.

Ben Cartmell
Head Student-Manager

Ben Cartmell is in his fourth season with the Cougar men's basketball team. With the help of the eight other Cougar managers, Cartmell's duties with WSU include the set up and breakdown of practices, assisting in drills, and, along with fellow student-manager Neil Stover, is in charge of the team's equipment. In the little free time he has between classes and basketball, the senior from Richland, Wash., enjoys golfing and playing basketball. Majoring in history and social studies education, Cartmell hopes to remain in collegiate athletics following graduation.

Mike Simonson
Head Student-Manager

Mike Simonson is in his second year as a manager for the Washington State University men's basketball team. One of nine hardworking student-managers, Simonson's duties with the Cougars include handling film exchange and video operations, as well as day-to-day tasks around the office, at practice and during games. A junior from Edmonds, Wash., Simonson enjoys playing golf, running and listening to music. Majoring in business, Simonson hopes to get a job in college basketball following graduation.

2007-08 REVIEW

The 2007-08 Washington State Cougars men's basketball team entered the season with a target on its back like never before. The team returned four starters from arguably the best team in school history, the 2006-07 squad, which shocked the nation on its way to a record 26 victories and WSU's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1994. The second round loss to Vanderbilt left something to be desired in 2008.

Before the season, head coach Tony Bennett introduced a verse to the team, 1 Corinthians 9:24: "Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win." The verse became the basis for their year-long team motto, "In Such A Way" (I.S.A.W.).

The Cougars were able to handle the pressure in such a way to climb the national polls throughout the season. They worked together in such a way to defeat teams the critics said had more talent. They strived to be their best in such a way to advance further in the NCAA Tournament than any Cougar team in 67 years. They played in such a way to win.

WSU MAKES HISTORIC RUN TO SWEET 16

After tying the school record for wins with a 26-9 record and tying for third place Pacific-10 Conference finish, Washington State earned its second-consecutive NCAA Tournament berth. The Cougars' selection as the fourth seed in the East Region marked the first time WSU made back-to-back NCAA Tournaments while Tony Bennett joined George Raveling as the second Cougar coach to reach the tournament twice (1980 and 1983).

The Cougars drew Big South Conference Tournament Champion Winthrop in the first round. Aron Baynes' 5-for-5

Nov. 9 vs. Eastern Washington

EWU's 41 points marked the fewest allowed by WSU in a season opener since 1948 (34 points, Whitworth).

Nov. 13 at Boise State

For the second-straight season, the Cougars came back to defeat BSU after trailing at the half.

Nov. 16 vs. Idaho

WSU's 74 points scored marked the most in the series with Idaho since putting up 81 Dec. 1, 2001.

Nov. 23 vs. Montana

Taylor Rochestie made a season-high seven field goals (7-for-10) and added six assists.

Nov. 24 vs. Mississippi Valley State

MVSU scored 26 points, the fewest allowed by WSU since Jan. 23, 1948 (23 points, Idaho) and the fewest since inception of the shot clock.

Nov. 25 vs. Air Force

Daven Harmeling tied a career-high, grabbing seven rebounds in the Cougars' victory.

Nov. 30 at Baylor

WSU overcame a 12-point halftime deficit for the win. The Cougars went 28 minutes between leads (10:18-1st to 2:17-2nd).

Dec. 5 at 17/19 Gonzaga

The victory marked the first WSU win on Gonzaga's home court since Dec. 13, 1977 and the second-straight win over the Bulldogs.

Dec. 9 vs. Portland State

Aron Baynes' 9-for-9 birthday performance helped WSU to the best field goal percentage of the Bennett Era at 65.0 percent.

performance buoyed the Cougars through a flat first half and after the first 20 minutes the score was tied at 29. The second half saw the Cougars outscore Winthrop 42-11 behind three 3-pointers from Derrick Low and seven assists from Taylor Rochestie. The frontcourt trio of Baynes, Robbie Cowgill and Caleb Forrest combined for 39 points on 18-for-23 shooting including a 9-for-9, 19-point performance from Baynes.

The second round matched WSU up with the fifth-seeded and 15th-ranked Notre Dame Fighting Irish. The game pitted the stingy Cougar defense against the high-scoring Irish offense, led by All-American center Luke Harangody. By the third media timeout Notre Dame was yet to reach double figures in scoring and it was clear the Cougars would control the pace of the game. WSU led 32-19 at the half and did not look back. Low led the Cougar offense with 18 points, while Cowgill and Baynes anchored the defense holding Harangody to 10 points on 3-of-17 shooting. Low also set the single-season school record with his 90th 3-pointer.

With the win the Cougars advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first time and joined the 1941 national runners up as the only Cougar teams to win two games in a single NCAA Tournament.

Across the country in Charlotte, N.C., at the East Regional semifinal, the Cougars faced the No. 1 seed, top-ranked and hometown favorite North Carolina Tar Heels. WSU held their own against the Tar Heels for much of the first half, trailing by only eight with less than two minutes to go while holding national player of the year Tyler Hansbrough to only two points. In the second half the Cougars could not keep up with North Carolina's offensive weapons and their historic run came to an end.

COUGARS CRUISE THROUGH NONCONFERENCE

The 2008 Cougars got off to the best start in 91 years and reached the highest ranking in school history thanks in large part to their tremendous play throughout the nonconference schedule. WSU won all 12 of its contests before conference games started and won most of them in convincing fashion. The Cougars allowed only 49.7 points per game while scoring 69.6 during the first dozen games.

One highlight of the nonconference was a come-from-behind 67-64 victory at Baylor, televised on ESPNU. The win at Baylor was followed by another road game at No. 17/19 Gonazaga, marking the first time the two had met while they were both ranked as WSU carried the No. 8 ranking into the game. The Cougars clawed their way to their first win at Gonzaga in 30 years, holding the Bulldogs to 47 points on 15-of-58 shooting.

WSU TIES FOR THIRD IN PAC-10

WSU began the Pac-10 conference slate at Washington and started with a win for the first time in three years. The sixth consecutive win over the Cougars' archrival was followed by a trip to Los Angeles. The first full weekend of conference action saw a convincing 73-58 victory over USC giving the Cougars a 14-0 record, the best start for a WSU team in 91 years. WSU suffered its first loss of the season against No. 5 UCLA 81-74 as the No. 4 Cougars faced a lower ranked Bruins team for only the second time in school history.

The next weekend brought the Oregon schools to town for the first conference games in Pullman. After a 23-point throttling of Oregon State, the Cougs prepared to face the Oregon Ducks,

Dec. 20 vs. The Citadel
WSU Improved to 3-0 in the Cougar Hardwood Classic at Seattle's KeyArena.

Dec. 23 at Idaho State
Caleb Forrest scored 11 points in a season-high 28 minutes as the Cougars finished their nonconference road schedule undefeated.

Dec. 28 vs. North Carolina A&T
The Cougars opened up the second half going 9-for-9 from the field in the first four minutes.

Jan. 5 at Washington
Aron Baynes' 16 points helped the Cougars to their first Pac-10 opening win in three years.

Jan. 10 at USC
With the win the Cougars got off to their best start in 91 years with a 14-0 mark; first time WSU started 2-0 in Pac-10 play since 1994-95.

Jan. 12 at UCLA
WSU connected on a season-high 13 3-point field goals including seven treys in the final 1:35.

Jan. 17 vs. Oregon State
Derrick Low scored his 1,000th career point in the first half, becoming the 28th Cougar to reach milestone.

Jan. 20 vs. Oregon
The Cougars snapped a 13-game losing streak against Oregon, the win ties for best Pac-10 start in 25 years (4-1).

Jan. 24 at Arizona
Daven Harmeling got his only start of the season and scored 13 points.

a team they had lost to in 13-straight meetings. WSU put that streak behind them with a 69-60 victory behind a season-high 27 points from Derrick Low as he along with the other seniors got their first win over the Ducks.

After a split in Arizona the Cougars returned home and dropped three consecutive games to California, Stanford and UCLA. It was the first three game losing streak of the Tony Bennett era and saw WSU drop out of the AP Top 10 for the first time all season.

The brief slide was followed by a four game winning streak. Along the way the Cougars secured season sweeps of USC, Oregon State, Oregon and Arizona State. The sweep-clinching victory at Oregon was the first WSU win in Eugene in 13 years.

The Cougars dropped two of the next three, but the win was a convincing revenge victory over California, 70-49.

The Cougs finished the conference season the same way it began, with another win over the Huskies. This time around it was in front of an electric Friel Court crowd on senior-night. WSU treated their home fans to thrilling, 76-73 double overtime victory giving the Cougars seven-consecutive wins over Washington and clinching a share of third place in the Pac-10.

TWO COUGS JOIN 1,000 POINT CLUB

Two Cougars joined an illustrious club last year. Seniors Derrick Low and Kyle Weaver became the 28th and 29th WSU men's basketball players to score 1,000 points in their career, respectively.

Low became the first to accomplish the feat since 2005 when Thomas Kelati finished his career with 1,081 points. He reached the milestone in the first half of the Cougars' Jan. 17 home win over Oregon State. He ranks 11th all-time with 1,288 points.

Weaver surpassed 1,000 points with his first basket against USC Feb. 9 at Friel Court on his way to a 17-point, 8-for-8 performance.

The tandem became the first set of Cougar teammates to reach the 1,000-point mark in the same season since Terry Kelly and Don Collins in 1980.

PAC-10 HONORS

For the second-straight season Kyle Weaver and Derrick Low garnered Pacific-10 All-Conference honors. Weaver was named to the second team while Low landed on the third team. Weaver was also selected to the All-Pac-10 Defensive team. In addition, junior Aron Baynes earned All-Pac-10 honorable mention while senior Robbie Cowgill was picked to the All-Pac-10 Defensive honorable mention team.

Jan. 26 at Arizona State
The Cougars improved to 6-2 when trailing at halftime; recorded second-straight one-point victory over Sun Devils.

Jan. 31 vs. California
The Cougars played a home game despite the Pullman campus being closed due to severe winter weather.

Feb. 2 vs. Stanford
Kyle Weaver had first career 20+ point performance with 23 points; recorded first double-double of the season.

Feb. 7 vs. UCLA
Kyle Weaver led WSU in points (13), assists (7) and rebounds (4).

Feb. 9 vs. USC
Kyle Weaver scored his 1,000th career points in first half and became the 29th Cougar to reach the milestone.

Feb. 14 at Oregon State
Taylor Rochestie scored a career-high 24 pts; he and Derrick Low became first duo to score 20+ pts in the same game this season.

Feb. 16 at Oregon
The Cougars earned their first victory at McArthur Court in 13 years with a 62-53 win.

Feb. 21 vs. Arizona State
WSU Held Arizona State to just 47 points and allowed only one player to score in double-figures.

Feb. 23 vs. Arizona
For the first time in his career Derrick Low led the Cougars in blocked shots against a Pac-10 opponent.

In addition to the athletic accolades, the Cougars made an indelible mark on the Pac-10 All-Academic teams. For the second consecutive season WSU placed three players on the first team, Cowgill and juniors Daven Harmeling and Taylor Rochestie. Baynes and sophomore Nikola Koprivica were named to the second team, giving the Cougars a conference-best and school record five honorees.

Cowgill was also recognized as the Toyo Tires Pac-10 Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

WSU IN THE POLLS

The Cougars began the season in the polls for the first time in school history. WSU was ranked No. 10 in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches' preseason polls.

Week after week, and win after win, the Cougs kept inching up the rankings with stops at Nos. 9, 8, 7 and 6 before reaching the highest ranking in school history at No. 4. The Cougars held that position from Dec. 24 until Jan. 14 in both polls.

WSU had a spot in the top 25 in both polls every week of the season. The Cougars ended the year at No. 21 in the AP poll and No. 15 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll.

WEAVER CAPS WSU CAREER AS NBA DRAFTEE

Kyle Weaver rounded out his college career as the No. 38 overall pick in the NBA Draft by the Charlotte Bobcats. Weaver became the first Cougar to be selected in the draft since Mark Hendrickson was the 31st overall pick by the Philadelphia 76ers in 1996.

BENNETT'S 50th WIN, THIRD AGAINST OREGON

The Cougars entered the 2007-08 season having lost to Oregon 13-consecutive times. On Jan. 20 WSU hosted the Ducks and pulled out a 69-60 victory, giving the seniors their first win over Oregon.

For the second matchup of the season, the Cougars traveled to McArthur Court on Feb. 16 to try and leave Eugene victorious for the first time in 13 years. They did just that, defeating the Ducks 62-53 behind Taylor Rochestie's 21 points.

The two teams met again in the Quarterfinals of the Pac-10 Tournament. For the third time in the same season the Cougars bested the Ducks. The 75-70 victory, thanks in large part to a balanced scoring attack including four starters in double figures, gave head coach Tony Bennett his 50th career victory in just his second season.

Bennett finished the season with 52 career victories, the fourth-most by a second-year head coach in NCAA history.

Feb. 28 at California

WSU held California to a season-low 49 points and recorded its 10th road win for 11th time in school history.

March 1 at Stanford

Derrick Low scored double-figures in his sixth-straight game.

March 8 vs. Washington

WSU went into double overtime for the second-straight senior day to capture its seventh consecutive win over the Huskies.

March 13 vs. Oregon

WSU notched its third-straight win over the Ducks and earned its second-straight Pac-10 Tourney Semifinals appearance.

March 14 vs. Stanford

Kyle Weaver scored a career-high 25 points; had second double-double of the season and sixth of his career.

March 20 vs. Winthrop

WSU won its second-straight NCAA Tourney First Round game. Aron Baynes went 9-for-9 from the field.

March 22 vs. Notre Dame

WSU held Notre Dame to its fewest points under eighth-year head coach Mike Brey. Derrick Low set the WSU single-season 3-point record (92).

March 27 vs. North Carolina

The Cougars made their first appearance in the NCAA Sweet 16.

Cougars Go Dancing for Second-Straight Season

- Washington State made its second-consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.
- The Cougars have made six trips to the NCAA Tournament, holding a 6-6 record in the tourney.
- The 2007-08 squad became just the second WSU team to win multiple games in an NCAA Tournament and advanced to the regional semifinals for the first time in school history.
- Head coach Tony Bennett became the fourth WSU head coach to take his team to the NCAA Tournament, the second to take his team twice and the first to do it in back-to-back seasons.
- The 81 combined points the Cougs allowed in the first and second rounds is the second lowest total for the first two rounds in the NCAA Tournament since the inception of the shot clock. The Cougars' mark was only bettered by UCLA, the No. 1 seed of the West Region, giving up 78 points, also in the 2008 Tournament.

Entering the 2008-09 season, the Pacific-10 Conference continues to uphold its tradition as the "Conference of Champions."® Pac-10 members have claimed an incredible 159 NCAA team titles over the past 18 seasons, for an average of more than eight championships per academic year.

Even more impressive is the breadth of the Pac-10's success, as those 159 team titles have come in 26 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-10 has led the nation in NCAA Championships 42 of the last 48 years and finished second five times.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievement, the Pac-10 has captured 372 NCAA titles (259 men's, 113 women's), far outdistancing the runner-up Big Ten Conference's 217 titles.

The Conference's reputation is further proven in the annual United States Sports Academy Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. STANFORD continued its remarkable run in the 2007-08 season, winning its 14th consecutive Directors' Cup. In the 2007-08 competition, eight of the Top-30 Division I programs were Pac-10 members: No. 1 STANFORD, No. 2 UCLA, No. 4 ARIZONA STATE, No. 7 CALIFORNIA, No. 13 USC, No. 22 WASHINGTON, No. 26 OREGON and No. 27 ARIZONA. The Pac-10 landed four programs in the Top-10, one more than the second-place SEC (3).

The Pac-10 captured 13 NCAA titles in 2007-08 to lead the nation, finishing just one shy of the all-time Division I record of 14 titles, set by the Pac-10 in 1996-97. It should be noted that the Pac-10 total does not include CALIFORNIA's national championship in men's rugby or STANFORD's national championship in women's synchronized swimming, as they are not counted as NCAA titles. The Pac-10 led the nation with the most NCAA titles in women's sports with eight.

NCAA team champions from the Pac-10 in 2007-08 came from ARIZONA (men's and women's swimming and diving), ARIZONA STATE (men's and women's indoor track & field and softball), CALIFORNIA (men's water polo), OREGON (men's cross country), STANFORD (women's cross country), UCLA (women's water polo, women's tennis and men's golf) and USC (women's soccer and women's golf). The Pac-10 also had runners-up in 10 NCAA Championship events: women's cross country (OREGON), women's volleyball (STANFORD), men's water polo (USC), women's basketball (STANFORD), men's gymnastics (STANFORD), men's golf (STANFORD), women's golf (UCLA), women's tennis (CALIFORNIA), women's track & field (ARIZONA STATE) and women's water polo (USC) . Overall, the Conference had 32 teams finish in the top four at NCAA Championship events.

Participation in the postseason was a common occurrence for the Conference in 2007-08. Of the 22 sports sponsored by the Pac-10, 20 witnessed at least half its teams participating in NCAA or other postseason action. The men sent 73 of a possible 90 teams into the postseason (81.1 percent), while the women sent 74 of a possible 100 teams (74.0 percent).

The Pac-10 experienced continued success in football as the league sent six teams to bowl games. USC and ARIZONA STATE were named co-champions with identical 7-2 league records. The Trojans capped their season with a 49-17 win over Illinois in the Rose Bowl. Overall, the Pac-10 went 4-2 in postseason bowl games with ARIZONA STATE, CALIFORNIA, OREGON, OREGON STATE and UCLA also earning bowl appearances. USC, ARIZONA STATE, OREGON and OREGON STATE found themselves ranked in the Top-25 in the nation at the conclusion of the season, finishing third, 16th, 23rd and 25th, respectively (Associated Press).

The Pac-10 was the premier basketball conference this season, as it sent a record nine teams to postseason play. The UCLA Bruins, the Pac-10 regular season champion and Pacific Life Pac-10 Tournament champion, advanced to the Final Four for the third consecutive season. On the women's side, three teams competed in the NCAA Tournament, as STANFORD advanced to the national championship for the first time since 1992. The Cardinal also claimed the 2007-08 regular season title and the State Farm Pac-10 Tournament trophy.

The Conference continued its dominance in softball as seven of eight teams earned trips to NCAA regional play, the most out of any conference in the nation. ARIZONA STATE claimed its first national title, outscoring Texas A&M by a margin of 14-0 in the best-of-three championship series. It marked the 20th national championship by a Pac-10 team since 1982. With an 18-3 Conference record, ARIZONA STATE picked up its first-ever Pac-10 crown, while earning a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Division I Softball Championship. The ARIZONA STATE baseball team claimed the 2008 Pac-10 championship with a 16-8 record in league play. The Conference sent five teams to postseason play, including STANFORD, which made its 16th appearance at the College World Series, and first in five seasons.

The Conference swept five NCAA men's and women's titles, including cross country, indoor track & field, golf, water polo and swimming and diving. CALIFORNIA captured the men's water polo title for the second year in a row, while UCLA garnered the women's hardware for the fourth consecutive year. The OREGON men took home the cross country title, while the STANFORD women claimed their third-straight crown. The NCAA golf championship trophies were taken home by LA counterparts, as UCLA won the men's title and USC won the women's. Two Conference schools swept on their own, including ARIZONA STATE (men's and women's indoor track & field) and ARIZONA (men's and women's swimming and diving).

On the men's side, Pac-10 members have won 259 NCAA team championships, far ahead of the 199 claimed by the runner-up Big Ten. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-10 - 15 basketball titles by five schools (more than any other conference), 49 tennis titles, 45 outdoor track and field crowns, and 26 baseball titles. Pac-10 members have won 24 of the last 39 NCAA titles in volleyball, 34 of the last 49 in water polo, and 21 total swimming and diving national championships.

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA men's individual champions as well, claiming 1,162 NCAA individual crowns.

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 27 years ago, Pac-10 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 19 occasions. Overall, the Pac-10 has captured 113 NCAA women's crowns, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second with 72. Pac-10 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 20 softball titles, 18 tennis crowns, 13 of the last 18 volleyball titles, 12 of the last 19 trophies in golf and 10 in swimming and diving.

Pac-10 women athletes shine nationally on an individual basis as well, having captured an unmatched 511 NCAA individual titles, an average of more than 18 champions per season.

The roots of the Pacific-10 Conference date back over 90 years to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Ore. Original membership consisted of four schools - the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916. One year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University), was accepted into the Conference, and Stanford University joined in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California and the University of Idaho. Montana joined the Conference in 1924, and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-team league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45, when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and joined the Mountain States Conference. The PCC continued as a nine-team Conference through 1958.

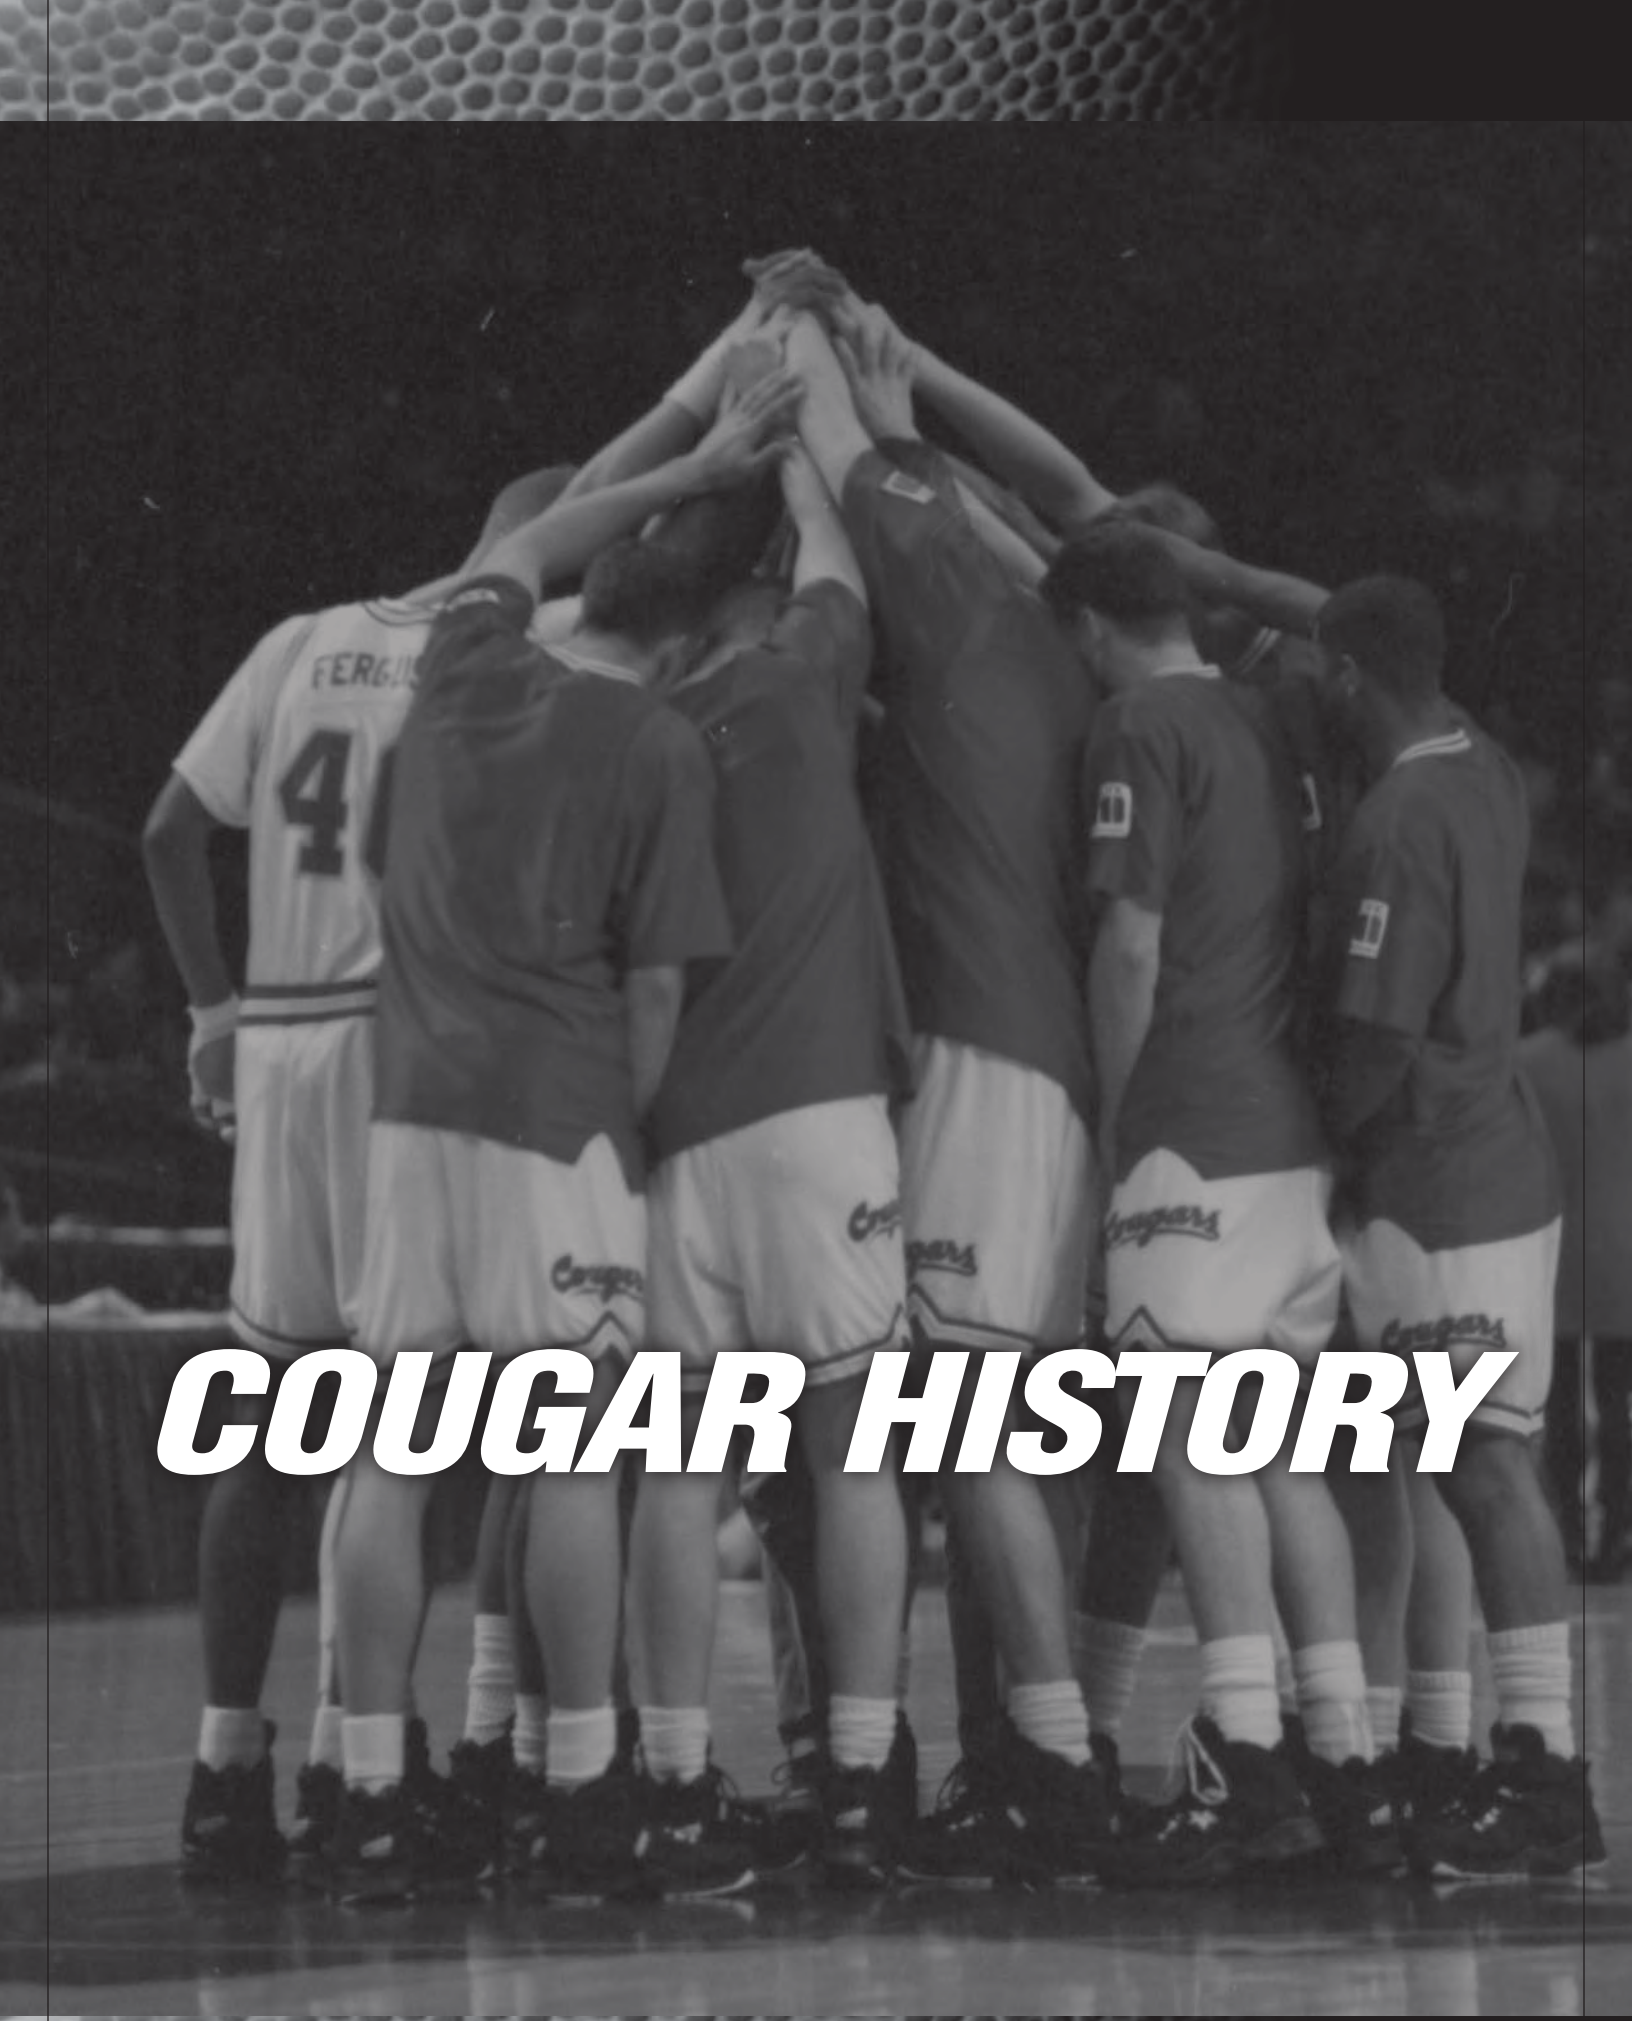

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and a new Conference was formed - the Athletic Association of Western Universities. Original AAWU membership consisted of California, Stanford, Southern California, UCLA, and Washington. Washington State became a member in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. In 1968, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports.

Currently, the Pac-10 sponsors 11 men's sports and 11 women's sports. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and two other women's sports.

Edwin N. Atherton was named the Conference's first Commissioner in 1940. He has been succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt (1944), Thomas J. Hamilton (1959), Wiles Hallock (1971), and current Commissioner Thomas C. Hansen in 1983.

The Pacific-10 Conference offices are located 25 miles east of San Francisco in Walnut Creek, Calif.

COUGAR HISTORY

DR. JAMES NAISMITH'S

13 Original Rules of Basketball

1. The ball may be thrown in any direction with one or both hands.
2. The ball may be batted in any direction with one or both hands (never with the fist).
3. A player cannot run with the ball. The player must throw it from the spot on which he catches it, allowance to be made for a man who catches the ball when running at a good speed if he tries to stop.
4. The ball must be held in or between the hands; the arms or body must not be used for holding it.
5. No shouldering, holding, pushing, tripping, or striking in any way the person of an opponent shall be allowed; the first infringement of this rule by any player shall count as a foul, the second shall disqualify him until the next goal is made, or, if there was evident intent to injure the person, for the whole of the game, no substitute allowed.
6. A foul is striking at the ball with the fist, violation of Rules 3,4, and such as described in Rule 5.
7. If either side makes three consecutive fouls, it shall count a goal for the opponents (consecutive means without the opponents in the mean time making a foul).
8. A goal shall be made when the ball is thrown or batted from the grounds into the basket and stays there, providing those defending the goal do not touch or disturb the goal. If the ball rests on the edges, and the opponent moves the basket, it shall count as a goal.
9. When the ball goes out of bounds, it shall be thrown into the field of play by the person first touching it. In case of a dispute, the umpire shall throw it straight into the field. The thrower-in is allowed five seconds; if he holds it longer, it shall go to the opponent. If any side persists in delaying the game, the umpire shall call a foul on that side.

10. The umpire shall be judge of the men and shall note the fouls and notify the referee when three consecutive fouls have been made. He shall have power to disqualify men according to Rule 5.
11. The referee shall be judge of the ball and shall decide when the ball is in play, in bounds, to which side it belongs, and shall keep the time. He shall decide when a goal has been made, and keep account of the goals with any other duties that are usually performed by a referee.
12. The time shall be two 15-minute halves, with five minutes' rest between.
13. The side making the most goals in that time shall be declared the winner. In case of a draw, the game may, by agreement of the captains, be continued until another goal is made.

Note: The original rules of basketball were written by Dr. James Naismith in December, 1891 in Springfield, Mass. These original rules were published in January, 1892 in the Springfield College school newspaper, The Triangle.

THE BEGINNING

A basketball team representing Washington Agricultural College and School of Science took the floor for the first time Dec. 7, 1901. The college was just nine years old, the school colors had only recently been changed from pink and blue to crimson and gray, and the game was played against a YMCA team in Spokane because Washington Agricultural College did not have a gymnasium. The Washington Agricultural College coach was John B. Evans, a senior student who would graduate with the class of '02, six months after that first game. The final score was YMCA 31, Washington Agricultural College 0.

In a return game Feb. 17, 1902, dedicating the first gymnasium on campus, situated where New Holland Library is today, John Palmerton, from Pullman, scored the first basket for the college, but it came in a losing effort once again. The final was YMCA 24, Washington Agricultural College 16.

"Coach" Evans remained for one season following his graduation, and his second team earned a place in Washington State's sports history books by defeating that pesky Spokane YMCA quintet 18-13 Dec. 13, 1902.

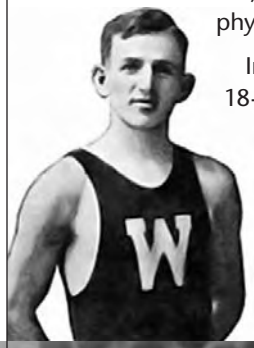

Professional basketball coaches were few and far between in the early 1900s, particularly in the Wild West. Washington Agricultural College football coaches James Ashmore, Everett Sweeley and John Bender followed Evans as the basketball coaches over the next five seasons, compiling a respectable record of 42 wins against 27 losses. It was not until the arrival of J. Fred "Doc" Bohler in 1908, as physical director—and coach of all sports—that the basketball program at the now State College of Washington (as of 1905) got some continuity.

Over the 103 years of basketball now recorded at Washington State University, only four coaches have remained for more than 10 seasons. Here is a look at those in order, with a few notes on others who have coached the Cougars.

BOHLER'S ERA

Cougar basketball jumped into the Major Leagues soon after "Doc" Bohler's arrival on the Palouse.

Despite the fact he was coaching just about everything at Washington State in those days—basketball, baseball, track—and acting as athletic director and trainer (the latter earned him his "Doctorate")—Bohler's greatest love was basketball. He had starred for the world champion YMCA team in Reading, Pa., in 1906, just two years prior to coming to Pullman as physical director and coach.

Roy Bohler

In 1916, Washington State's basketball team was 18-3 and won the Northwest League title for the first time. Bohler did it with a team mostly made up of home-grown players. The starting five consisted of Ivan Price and the Moss brothers, Norm and Bob, all three from Pullman, Eddie Copeland of Walla Walla, and Bohler's brother Roy from Pennsylvania.

Washington State was even better in 1917. Bohler's team won the newly formed Pacific Coast Conference with virtually the same lineup, plus Glenn Glover, another Pullman product. Price and Roy Bohler made all-conference.

With a final season record of 25-1 (the lone loss was to California in Berkeley, and WSC beat the Bears the following night), the Helms Athletic Foundation declared State national champions at the conclusion of that great season which saw WSC play 18 of its 26 games on the road.

"Doc" Bohler's record over 18 seasons (1909-26) was 226-177 for a .561 winning percentage, second best among all Cougar basketball coaches with more than two seasons at the helm.

McClellan "Chick" Rockey, a forward on the Bohler teams of 1918-21, was the only All-Pacific Coast Conference selection from Washington State in the Bohler era. "Chick" was selected in 1919 and 1920.

THE FRIEL DYNASTY

Jack Friel had more nicknames than any other coach at Washington State. He was "The Fox of the Palouse," "The Silver Fox," and, late in his 30-year career, "The Prune." Most of all, he was a coaching genius!

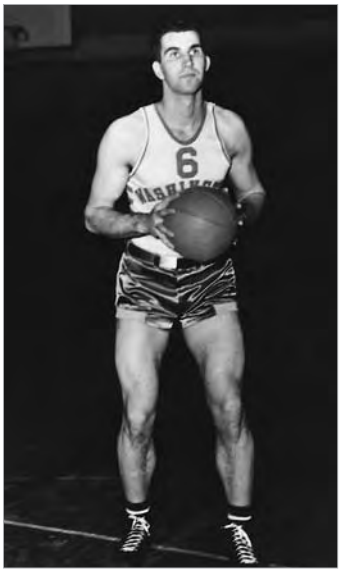

Friel had never coached a college game when he took over Washington State's ailing basketball program for the 1929 season. Jack had played under "Doc" Bohler from 1921-23, and his team at North Central High School in Spokane won the school's first State championship in 1928.

After Bohler gave up coaching, because of pressing duties as athletic director and head of WSC's physical education program, WSC track coach Karl Schlademan took over for two seasons, posting a record of 18-27 before the arrival of Friel.

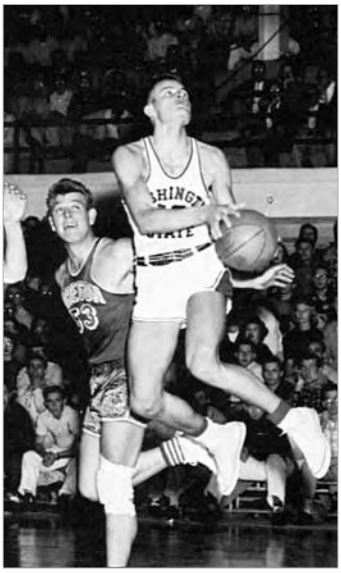

Friel had a losing season in his first year, before his teams posted five straight marks above .500. The 1932 team finished 22-5 and was runner-up for the Northern Division title of the Pacific Coast Conference. To this day, Friel is the winningest Washington State basketball coach, and has a career best winning percentage, .568 (872-495) over 30 seasons (1929-58).

That is why the playing floor at Beasley Performing Arts Coliseum, "Friel Court," is named in his honor.

Jack Friel

Paul Lindemann, (1939-1941)

Ronald Bennink, (1953-1955)

In 2003, Friel was inducted into the Pacific-10 Conference Hall of Honor.

Every Cougar remembers Jack's great team of 1941, but his '37 club, led by all-conference center Ivar Nelson, won the Northern Division of the Pacific Coast in a miracle finish.

The Cougars won a three-way playoff vs. Washington in Seattle, and Oregon in Bohler Gym, and then met Stanford with its all-time greatest Angelo "Hank" Luisetti for the Pacific Coast crown.

Old Cougars tell how "Stanford won (31-28 and 41-40), but Nelson outscored Luisetti (19-18)!"

In 1941, Friel got his revenge. The Cougars won the Northern Division with a 13-3 mark and defeated Stanford two straight for the Pacific Coast title.

Washington State then beat Creighton (48-39) in the NCAA tournament and stunned tournament favorite Arkansas (64-53) to advance to the championship game.

Wisconsin knocked off WSC 39-34 in the title game in Kansas City, Mo., to deny the Cougars a national championship.

Two members of that '41 team, center Paul Lindemann and guard Ray Sundquist, were named All-Pacific Coast Conference. Lindemann and Sundquist, along with Art McLarney (1930), Huntly Gordon (1932), Ivar Nelson (1937), Gale Bishop (1943), and Larry Beck 1956 and 1957) were named All-PCC during coach Friel's years. Vince Hanson set an NCAA scoring record in 1945 with 592 points and was named All-American, but the PCC all-star selections were discontinued in 1944 and not resumed until 1956.

One of the truly great innovators of basketball, coach Friel introduced a "two-platoon" system, where he would substitute by units, and he forced his opposition—even the talent rich John Wooden teams at UCLA—to do the same. Friel was also instrumental in the adoption of the "one-and-one" rule on free throws.

Coach Friel won his final Northern Division title in 1950 with a splendid collection of all-around athletes who made his "two-platoon" philosophy flourish. Four of the starting five—Bob Gambold, Gene Conley, Ted Tappe and Leon Mangis—lettered in two sports, and the fifth, forward Ed Gayda, Friel always said was one of the most talented he coached in his 30 years. In the second platoon, Eric Roberts and Gordy Brunswick were two-sport stars, and Frank Mataya lettered in football, basketball, track and baseball during his amazing career at Washington State.

Several years later, Gene Conley became the first athlete to play on world championship teams in two sports. He played center for the Boston Celtics when they won the NBA title and pitched for the Milwaukee Braves who captured the World Series. Ted Tappe also played professional baseball, and hit a home run for the Cincinnati Reds in his first at-bat in the Major Leagues.

Friel's Cougars romped through the Northern Division in 1950, winning by three games over Washington and Oregon State. But the luck of the draw put the playoffs on the home court of Southern Division winner UCLA.

"They trapped us in a handball court," Conley said years later. He was referring to the gymnasium at Westwood that made Bohler Gym back in Pullman look like the Staples Center.

UCLA won the opener 60-58 on a 50-foot heave at the buzzer by forward Ralph Joeckel, and claimed the series, 52-49, the following night to give John Wooden his first Pacific Coast Conference title.

Players making All-Northern Division in the Friel years included Art McLarney, Claud Holsten, Huntly Gordon, Ken Wills, Huntley McPhee, Jack Holstine, Jack Jennings, Bud Olson, Ray Sundquist, Vern Butts, Gale Bishop, Paul Lindemann, Marv Gilberg, Vince Hanson, Bob Sheridan, Ed Gayda, Gene Conley, Bob Gambold, Ron Bennink and Larry Beck.

HARSHMAN AND HEATHCOTE

Marv Harshman came to Washington State following an illustrious career as athlete and coach at Pacific Lutheran University and took over for the retired Jack Friel in 1959. It took Harshman seven seasons to post a winning record, but in all fairness to Marv, it should be pointed out that the old Pacific Coast Conference broke up in his first season, making his recruiting task very difficult as an "Independent." It was not until the 1965 season, with the addition of one of Jack Friel's old platoon "hatchet men," George "Jud" Heathcote, that Marv had a full-time assistant. From that point on, Harshman and Heathcote turned the Cougar program around.

Among the highlights of the Harshman-Heathcote years at Washington State were opening round wins over West Virginia, Princeton and Syracuse in the Far West Classics of 1966-68 when all three of the eastern teams were highly regarded. These were also the seasons during which center Jim McKean was setting all sorts of school scoring and rebounding records for the Cougars while Ray Stein and Lenny Allen were wowing fans with their blazing fast-breaks. McKean made the All-Pacific-8 Conference team in both 1967 and 1968. Ted Wierman followed McKean as the Pac-8 center in 1969 and Rick Erickson won the honor at guard in 1970.

The top three rebounders in Washington State history played for Harshman-Heathcote in McKean (11.0 rpg), Charlie Sells (10.88 rpg) and Ted Werner (10.87 rpg).

Washington State scored one of its rare victories over UCLA in 1966, defeating the Bruins 84-83 at Pullman. The Cougars had near misses vs. number-one ranked UCLA in 1970 and 1971, losing 72-70 and 57-53 in the din-bin that was old Bohler Gym.

Harshman left WSU for the University of Washington following the 1971 season, and Heathcote took the head job at the University of Montana. Just eight seasons later, in 1979, Heathcote worked a little magic at Michigan State with Earvin Johnson and defeated Larry Bird and Indiana State for the NCAA championship.

RAVELING'S REVIEW

George Raveling became the head basketball coach at Washington State for the 1973 season, following a one-year stint by Bob Greenwood. (Greenwood went 11-15 in his only season with the Cougars, but his 1972 team upset both Michigan and New Mexico before losing to Florida State in the finals of the 1971 Far West Classic at Portland. Dan Steward led the Cougar scorers that season with a 16.3 average).

Raveling, who played at Villanova, came to WSU from Maryland, where he had been an assistant under "Lefty" Driesell. George closed historic Bohler Gym (capacity 5,600) following the 1973 season and opened Washington State's Beasley Performing Arts Coliseum (then capacity 12,058) Dec. 1, 1973 with an 80-78 win over Louisiana State. (The game was also noteworthy because LSU coach Dale Brown served as an assistant under Bob Greenwood at WSU during the 1972 season).

Raveling's WSU teams improved rapidly from the 6-20 mark in his first season, and in 1980 the Cougars finished the regular season and made their first appearance in the NCAA tournament since Jack Friel's 1941 team went to the final. WSU's postseason was cut short with a 62-55 loss to Pennsylvania in the first round in West Lafayette, Ind.

The Cougars were back in the "Big Dance" in 1983, and defeated Weber State 62-52 in the first round in Boise, Idaho before dropping a narrow 54-49 decision to fourth-ranked Virginia. The Cougars finished 23-7 that season and earned Raveling a new job—at Iowa, succeeding Lute Olson, who moved on to Arizona.

George Raveling celebrates a 1973 win.

Stars of the Raveling years at Washington State include Steve Puidokas, Don Collins, Craig Ehlo and James Donaldson. Puidokas made the All-Pacific-8 team four straight seasons between 1974-77 and still holds a flock of Cougar career records, including rebounds, field goals, and scoring average (18.6 ppg). Collins, Bryan Rison and Steve Harriel were All-Pacific-10 choices under Raveling, and Donaldson and Ehlo went on to play in the NBA for many years.

George Raveling's 13-year record at Washington State (167-136) is third best in the Cougars' books, following Jack Friel and "Doc" Bohler.

STEVENS TO GRAHAM

Len Stevens was an assistant to George Raveling and moved up to become head coach of the Cougars in 1984 upon Raveling's departure. Stevens directed the program for four seasons (48-67, with a best of 15-16 in 1986) before giving way to one of his own assistants, Kelvin Sampson, for the 1988 campaign. Keith "Scooter" Morrison was the top performer for the Cougars under Stevens, making the All-Pacific-10 team twice, 1985 and 1986.

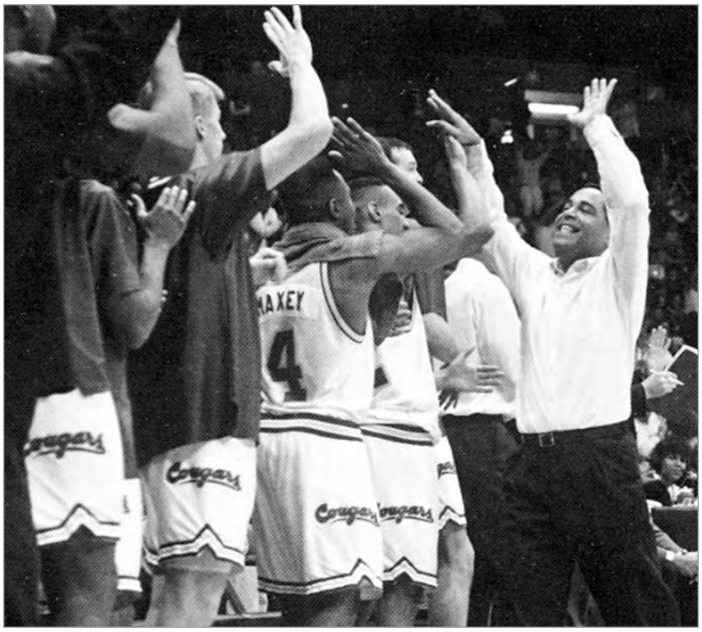

Kelvin Sampson took the Cougars to the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) for the first time in 1992 after a 9-9 finish in the Pacific-10. WSU defeated Minnesota 72-70 in Pullman in the first round, before losing to New Mexico 79-71 in Albuquerque. The Cougars finished 22-11.

WSU was back in the NCAA tourney in 1994 after a 20-10 finish in the regular season, but lost in the opening round 67-64 to Boston College. The Cougars then lost their head coach to the University of Oklahoma. Sampson left WSU after a seven-year span with a .500 mark (103-103).

Stars of the Sampson era at Washington State included Brian Quinnett, Terrence Lewis, Bennie Seltzer and Mark Hendrickson. The latter three were selected All-Pacific-10 Conference while Hendrickson, Seltzer and Quinnett rank fourth, sixth and eighth, respectively, on WSU's all-time scoring list.

Kevin Eastman, head coach at North Carolina-Wilmington, succeeded Sampson at Washington State for the 1995 season, inheriting both Hendrickson and Isaac Fontaine, who became two-time All-Pacific-10 choices.

Eastman's first two teams at Washington State went to the NIT, the 1995 club posting an 18-12 record and reaching the quarterfinals with wins over Texas Tech and Illinois State before losing to Canisius. In 1996, Eastman's team was 18-11 and defeated Gonzaga 92-73 in the first round of the NIT in Pullman. WSU was eliminated from the tournament with an 82-73 loss to Nebraska in Lincoln.

Eastman left after the 1999 season with a five-year record of 69-78. Along with Hendrickson and Fontaine, Carlos Daniel earned All-Pacific-10 Conference honors under Eastman, garnering the selection in 1998.

Paul Graham replaced Eastman and posted a 31-79 record in four years as the Cougars' head coach. The highlight of his tenure came in 2000-01 when WSU posted 12 wins and garnered its best Pac-10 finish in six seasons. That season, J Locklier was named Pacific-10 Conference Newcomer of the Year, Mike Bush earned Honorable Mention All-Pac-10, and Marcus Moore occupied a spot on the Pac-10 All-Freshman Team.

THE BENNETTS' IMPACT

Officially joining the Cougar family March 29, 2003, Dick Bennett brought with him over 35 years of experience in coaching, along with his son Tony, to the men's basketball program. After successfully rebuilding programs at Wisconsin-Stevens Point, an NAIA school, Wisconsin-Green Bay and Wisconsin, the elder Bennett was a perfect fit for the struggling WSU program, and his son and assistant coach Tony was a perfect addition to the Cougars.

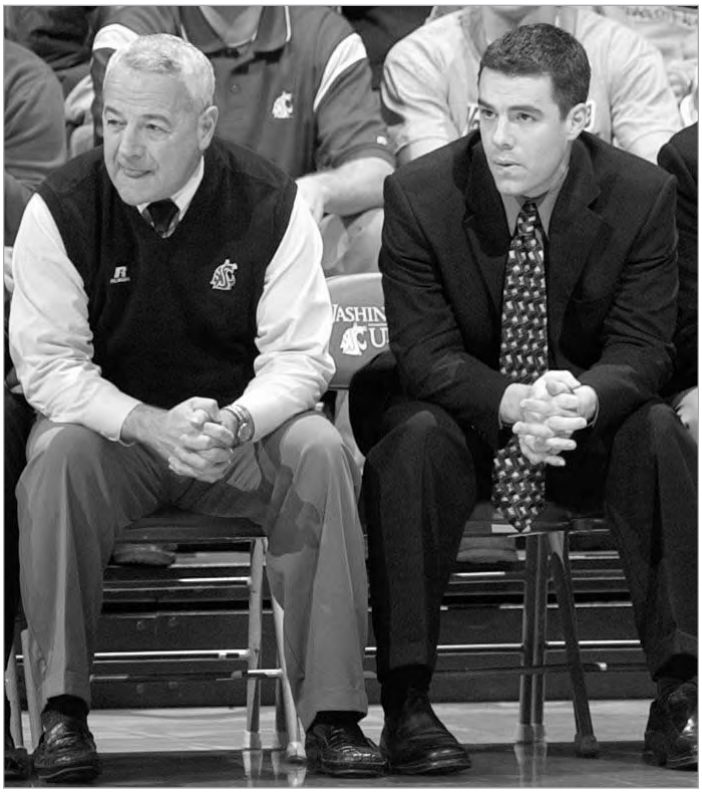

In Bennett's first year as a Cougar the team improved on its previous season by six wins, posting a 13-16 record. During the season WSU broke a number of streaks, many of them on the road. These achievements included winning at Alaska Fairbanks to break a 27-game road losing streak, beating UCLA on the road for the first time in 47 tries and ending a 22-game road losing streak in the Pac-10 at California.

The Cougars also swept season series against USC, Arizona State, and California. This marked the first time since 1994-95 that WSU had swept three Pac-10 opponents. The Cougars finished the season ranked nationally in scoring defense (12th, 59.7), free throw percentage (13th, 74.9), and fewest turnovers (14th, 12.1). Finally, during the week of Feb. 2-8 WSU was named men's basketball national team of the week by ESPN following wins at UCLA and USC.

Season two at WSU for Bennett saw more growth in the program. The Cougars won at No. 11 Arizona Jan. 29 to break a 38-game losing streak versus the Wildcats. This win also ended a 20-game road losing streak against the team directed by Lute Olsen. Another highlight of the 2004-05 season was a home-and-home sweep of Stanford, which broke overall and road losing skids of 17 and eight, respectively against the Cardinal.

Other improvements during the 2004-05 season included advancing to a second straight Pac-10 tournament and tying for sixth place in the Pac-10, the best finish since 2000-01. Over the course of the season WSU continued to close the gap on a winning record with a dozen games decided by three points or less. The Cougars improved over their previous season's ranking and ended ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense, allowing only 56.9 points a game. This was the least allowed by a Pac-10 team in 21 years.

Individually, Thomas Kelati became the first Cougar in seven years to be named All-Pac-10 First Team. The Walla Walla native finished his career 18th in WSU history with 1,081 points and second in Former head coach Dick Bennett (L) with son and current head coach, Tony.

3-pointers with 232. Robbie Cowgill and Derrick Low were named Pac-10 All-Freshman honorable mention.

Bennett returned to WSU for his third and final season as a head coach determined to finish the rebuilding process. The most remarkable achievement of the 2005-06 season was a sweep of arch rival Washington. Not only did this mark the first sweep of the Huskies since 1994, but was also the first home win against a ranked opponent (77-64 vs. No. 16 Washington) since beating No. 25 California during the 1996-97 season. The win at Hec Edmundson Pavilion against No. 10 Washington was the first against a top 10 team in 57 road games, and ended a 34-game overall skid against top 10 teams. The Cougars led the Pac-10 in three defensive categories: scoring defense, field goal percentage defense, and 3-point field goal percentage defense.

A 2005 Hoop Scoop ranking of college coaches landed Dick Bennett at No. 9. By ending his coaching career with an overall record of 490-306 (.616) in 27 years of coaching at the collegiate level, Dick Bennett demonstrated that he was deserving of this honor. His knowledge of basketball will continue to enhance the WSU men's basketball program through his son, Tony who took the WSU head coaching position at the conclusion of the 2005-06 season.

Tony Bennett spent his first two seasons at the helm for the Cougars proving the doubters wrong. Chosen to finish last in the Pac-10 in 2006-07, Bennett led his team to a 13-5 conference mark, finishing second in the league. He followed it up with an 11-7 league mark in 2007-08, tied for third in the Pac-10. In both seasons Bennett's Cougars put together 26 wins, tying the school record set by the NCAA runner-up 1940-41 team.

In 2007-08 the Cougars got off to their best start in 91 years at 14-0. With its 12-0 nonconference mark combined with 2006-07's 11-1 start, WSU lost just one regular season nonconference game in Bennett's first two seasons. Bennett became just the second Cougar coach to lead his team to consecutive 20-win seasons and, following the 2007-08 season, was tied for fourth in NCAA Division I history for the best start by number of wins by a head coach in his first two seasons.

The history making continued for the Cougars as they reached the NCAA Tournament for just the fifth time in school history in Bennett's first year, reaching the second round before bowing out to Vanderbilt. In his second season, Bennett led the Cougars to the Sweet 16 where they fell to top-ranked North Carolina in Charlotte, N.C. It marked just the second time WSU had won multiple games in the tournament while Bennett became just the second coach in school history to lead two teams to the NCAA Tournament, and the only one to do it in consecutive seasons.

Both seasons saw WSU finish in the top 25 in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today polls, as the Cougars had been ranked in the top 25 in both polls for 30-consecutive weeks following the 2007-08 season. The Cougars jumped in the rankings at No. 22 on Jan. 8, 2007, marking their first appearance in the poll since Feb., 1983. The Cougars started the 2007-08 season with their first spot in the Associated Press preseason poll, coming in at No. 10. WSU kept climbing the polls. By the end of the nonconference schedule it had reached No. 4 in both polls, the highest ranking in school history.

Tony Bennett

At the conclusion of the 2006-07 season, Bennett became the most decorated Pacific-10 coach in a single season with nine national coach of the year awards, including the accolades from the Associated Press. He also became just the third WSU head coach to pick up Pac-10 Coach of the Year honors.

Two of Bennett's key recruits from his first year as an assistant on the Palouse, Derrick Low and Kyle Weaver, earned numerous honors following their junior and senior seasons. In 2006-07 the two each earned All-Pacific-10 Conference First Team accolades, making them the first WSU duo to earn the honors since 1995-96. Low and Weaver earned all-league honors once again in 2008 as Weaver was named to the second team and Low earned third team accolades. Aron Baynes was an all-conference honorable mention honoree.

The Pac-10 brought back its all-defensive team in 2008 as Weaver was named to the All-Pac-10 Defensive Team and Robbie Cowgill was named honorable mention. Weaver was taken by the Charlotte Bobcats as the 38th overall pick in the second round of the 2008 NBA Draft.

Low and Weaver capped off their solid junior seasons by being selected to represent the United States at the 2007 Pan American Games in Brazil, in which Team USA finished fifth. Two other Bennett recruits represented their countries in international play as Aron Baynes played for Australia and Thomas Abercrombie suited up for New Zealand in the 2007 World University Games. In the summer of 2008, Nikola Koprivica captained the U20 Serbian team which took home the gold at the European Championship.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS; NATIONAL HEROES

Dating back to the beginning of the 20th Century, the Washington State men's basketball program has a long and storied history.

With every season that makes up this history, a different story is told, unique to any other.

In 1917, a team from the Pullman campus accomplished feats so exceptional; on the court and off, that while time may do its best to erode the memories of the team's deeds, the 1917 season will always hold an extraordinary place in the history of Washington State Athletics.

The achievements came through the hard work, resolve, and courage demonstrated by the players throughout the course of the season. A year later, the same traits were applied by many members of the team in a much different battle, half a world away, against a different type of opposition, as four of the five players fought in World War I.

The 1917 team's performance on the court was that of champions; off the court it was heroic.

Washington State's legendary Coach and Athletic Director J. Fred "Doc" Bohler was entering his ninth season as head coach of the basketball team, and he was returning the core of his outstanding 1916 team that went 18-3 and earned a Northwest Conference Championship: Roy Bohler (captain and brother of the coach), Ed Copeland, Bob Moss, Ivan Price and Al Sorenson.

The first season of Washington State basketball was in 1901-02. The team played just two games that year, losing both to the Spokane YMCA. The 2007-08 season marks the 107th season of Washington State basketball.

During the time in between, there have been memorable seasons for the school. The 941 national runner-up team; Jack Friel's 1937 and 1950 Northern Division Champions; George Raveling's 1980 and '83 NCAA Tournament teams, and the 1994 NCAA Tournament team coached by Kelvin Sampson are among the most noteworthy.

As extraordinary as those seasons were, it's the 1917 team that holds a special place in Cougar annals.

It is a team that posted a 25-1 record, an accomplishment impressive on its own. It is made more amazing when the fact that the team played 18 of its games on the road, and used essentially a five-man roster for the season, is taken into consideration.

It is a team that became national champions decades after the fact, but were national heroes well before then.

It is a team that, despite time's best efforts, will never be forgotten.

1940-1941
COUGARS COMPLETE 26-6 SEASON AS NCAA RUNNERS-UP

Legendary head coach Jack Friel had guided the Washington State College men's basketball teams of 1939 and 1940 to identical 23-10 records, but neither year would compare to the magical season of 1941 in which the Cougars finished 26-6 as the NCAA runners-up.

Paul Lindemann and Ray Sundquist were named All-Pacific Coast Conference in 1941. The duo joined Art McLarney (1930), Huntly Gordon (1932) and Ivar Nelson (1937) as Cougars named All-PCC under coach Friel. Gale Bishop (1943) and Larry Beck (1956-57) later joined the list while playing for Friel.

Washington State's starting lineup featured four seniors, including the 'giant' Lindemann, a 6-7, 230 center who paced the Cougars in scoring with 326 points (10.2). The Cougars used a pair of 6-2 seniors - Dale Gentry and Vern Butts - at forward, while senior Sundquist and junior Kirk Gebert held down the guard positions. Friel, who consistently used 11 players in his "rotation", also incorporated 6-2 sophomore Marv Gilberg as his "sixth man" for Butts.

"We were a pretty good shooting team," Friel said of his '41 Cougars. "We tried to break and we kept the pressure on by using a lot of players. Defense was our forte."

The Cougars dropped their first two Northern Division games to Oregon State in Corvallis before reeling off 13 straight wins, a conference record, to claim their first title since 1937. That winning streak included a four-game sweep over the University of Washington. WSC then beat the Southern Division champion Stanford "Indians" twice in Pullman for the Pacific Coast Championship and the right to advance to the Western United States Tournament in Kansas City, Mo.

Washington State dumped Creighton 48-39 in the opening round with Lindemann scoring 26 points. In the semifinal match Lindemann's 14 points led a balanced Cougar attack to a 64-53 upset of previously unbeaten and tournament favorite Arkansas. The win earned the Cougars the title as the best team in the West and propelled WSC into the NCAA championship game at Kansas City, Mo., with the East champion Wisconsin Badgers.

In the championship game, Gebert scored 21 of WSU's 34 points in a 39-34 loss to the Badgers. Gebert connected on 10-of-24 field goals in the game. Wisconsin was led by Gene Englund's 13 points.

COUGARS EARN FIRST NCAA BERTH IN 39 YEARS

Back Row (l to r): Assistant Coach Mark Edwards, Brad Meyers, Reedy Berg, Kevin Simmons, Chris Monson, Angelo Hill, Chuck Hinchey, Aaron Haskins, Michael Ingram, Darrin Erdahl, Ben Comer, Assistant Coach Tom Pugliese, Head Coach George Raveling. Front Row: John Tessem, Stuart House, Terry Kelly, Don Collins, John Preston, Bryan Rison, Clyde Huntley.

The 1980 Washington State University Cougars won seven of their final eight Pacific-10 games and earned their first trip to the NCAA Tournament in 39 years. WSU entered the tournament with a 22-5 regular season mark, the school's best win-loss percentage of the modern era.

WSU's stretch drive included a convincing 69-51 victory over conference champion Oregon State, then ranked fourth nationally, in front of a then record 12,327 Friel Court fans. The Cougars also defeated Pac-10 runner-up Arizona State 71-58 to finish third in the league with a 14-4 mark.

Head coach George Raveling's starting lineup consisted of five seniors. Forward Don Collins, the Pac-10's Player of the Year, led the league in scoring with a torrid 23.1 points per game, the highest scoring average since UCLA's Bill Walton (23.9) in 1972. Collins also set school single-season records for points (647), field goals (253) and steals (76). Point guard Brian Rison, who finished with 100 assists and 70 steals, joined Collins on the all-conference team. Stuart House, a 6-11 center, averaged 13.1 points, 8.4 rebounds and blocked 69 shots. Guard Terry Kelly and forward John Preston, team co-captains, were also in the lineup.

This was the first year the tournament expanded from 40 teams to 48. Also, all 12 teams in the four brackets were seeded and teams were placed in any region regardless of geographic considerations. While three other Pac-10 schools (OSU, ASU and UCLA) remained in the West Regional, Washington State, a No. 5 seed, was shipped out to the Mideast Regional at Purdue University to face Ivy League champion Pennsylvania, 16-11, in the opening round.

Nearly 12,700 fans piled into the Mackey Arena to watch WSU's first round match. After being tied at halftime 27-27, the Cougars jumped to a ten-point second-half lead 38-28. But when Collins fouled out with 3:57 to play, the Quakers took advantage and pulled away to a 62-55 win. Collins led all players with 20 points and six rebounds. The Quakers converted 20 of 27 foul shots, while WSU hit just 11 of 21.

RAVELING, COUGARS MAKE RETURN TRIP TO NCAA TOURNAMENT

Perhaps no other Washington State basketball team kept Cougar fans on the edge of their seats like George Raveling's 1983 squad. The Cougars completed the regular season with a 22-6 record with 15 games decided by four points or less (the Cougs won 11) and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second time in four years.

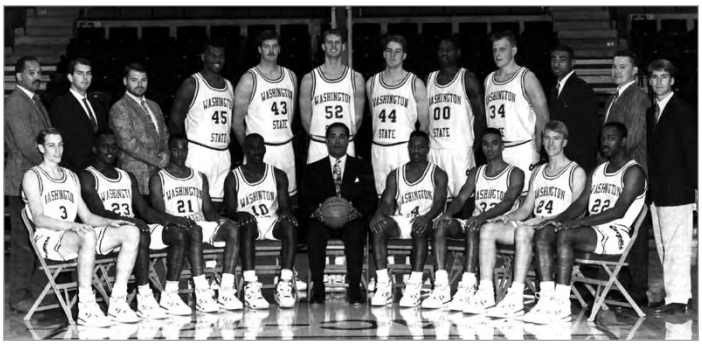

After a 3-2 start in nonconference play Washington State won 12 straight games including a 76-64 blowout of Oregon State at Corvallis. The Cougars also enjoyed a perfect home court record (14-0) for the first and only time since J. Fred Bohler's 1917 team. In the final home contest of '83 a record 12,422 fans packed Friel Court and saw sophomore Bryan Pollard rebound Chris Winkler's missed shot and score at the buzzer to beat UCLA 70-68. But a one-point road loss to Washington in the season finale kept the Cougars from sharing the Pac-10 title with UCLA.

Not all of the hardship could be measured by wins and losses. WSU's 6-9 superman Guy Williams, who averaged 18.8 points and 8.9 rebounds per outing, mangled his knee at Oregon on a twisting dribble while trying to break the Ducks' press. He underwent surgery and was out for the season. But the injury to Williams' brought the talents of seniors Steve Harriel (15.0), Craig Ehlo (12.0) and Aaron Haskins (8.8) to the forefront. "On this team I didn't have to deal with a lot of selfish egos," said Raveling. "This team had people willing to make personal sacrifices for team success."

Washington State, seeded eighth in the West Regional at Boise State, drew Big Sky champion Weber State in the first round and beat the Wildcats 62-52 behind Ehlo's 18 points. That gave WSU its 23rd victory of the year, the most wins in a season since the 1941 Cougars went 26-6. In round two 7-4 center Ralph Sampson's 15 points, 12 rebounds and four blocks led fourth-ranked Virginia, the top seed in the West, past the Cougars 54-49. WSU trailed by five at the half, 30-25, but tied the Cavaliers just one minute into the second half. Virginia gained a six-point advantage only to see WSU tie the score again at 40-40. But Virginia used a delay offense and three free throws by Othell Wilson gave the Cavaliers the lead for good. Haskins paced WSU with 14 points off the bench and Ehlo added 12.

The loss to Virginia left the Cougars with a 23-7 record overall and marked the end of an era as Raveling left Washington State to accept the head coaching position at the University of Iowa.

SAMPSON TAKES COUGS TO NATIONAL INVITATION TOURNAMENT

The 1992 Washington State basketball team enjoyed its finest season with head coach Kelvin Sampson as the Cougars finished with a 22-11 record, a fifth-place showing in the Pac-10 Conference and their first trip to the National Invitation Tournament.

Senior guards Terrence Lewis, an All-Pac-10 performer, and Neil Derrick, runner-up in the NCAA Final Four Slam Dunk contest, became the only Cougar teammates to reach the 500-point plateau during the same season with 575 and 501 points, respectively. Ken Critton, another senior, provided WSU with a dominant big man as he grabbed 270 rebounds. As a team, the Cougars finished fourth in the nation in free throw percentage, hitting .760 from the foul line. That mark broke the 24-year-old school record and the 16-year-old Pac-10 mark. Defensively, the Cougars held ten opponents under 40 percent shooting.

The Cougars opened the year by winning the first 12 nonconference matches, their best start since Jack Friel's 1955 team. In Pac-10 play, WSU swept the Oregon schools for the first time since 1983. The home victory over Cal, 101-83, marked the first time the Cougars had scored over 100 points in a conference game since 1980. Point guard Bennie Seltzer played a prominent offensive role during WSU's stretch run as the Cougars won five of their last seven games. Seltzer hit 59.1 percent of his shots, 53.1 percent from three-point range and averaged 13 points. During the drive, the Cougars earned their first win of the year against a Top-25 program as WSU defeated No. 8 USC 82-68 at Friel Court on ABC-TV.

The Cougars registered win No. 22 as they beat the Golden Gophers of Minnesota 72-70 during a first-round NIT contest at home. WSU scored 11 of its last 13 points at the foul line. Lewis and Critton led the Cougars with 17 and 16 points, respectively. But the postseason road came to an end at "The Pit" in Albuquerque as host New Mexico edged the Cougars 79-71. WSU trailed the Lobos by eight at halftime 40-32. A 13-4 run gave WSU a 67-65 lead with 4:21 remaining, but the Lobos countered with a 14-4 run to close the contest. New Mexico's Khari Jaxon scored 15 points, grabbed 16 rebounds and blocked eight shots while Lewis scored 20 points with six three-pointers for WSU.

COUGARS REWARDED WITH TRIP TO THE "BIG DANCE"

At the conclusion of the first practice of the 1994 season, head coach Kelvin Sampson announced to a capacity Bohler Gym crowd that Washington State's goal was to be one of the 64 teams invited to the NCAA Tournament. By season's end Sampson and the Cougars realized their dream of going to the "Big Dance".

Sampson's squad finished 20-11 overall, tied for fourth in the Pac-10 with a 10-8 mark and made its first NCAA appearance in 11 years.

No Cougars were selected to the all-conference team, but Sampson's collection of "No Names" had its own set of stars. Four players scored in double figures, including seniors Tony Harris (13.3), the team MVP, Eddie Hill (12.7), Fred Ferguson (10.2) and sophomore Mark Hendrickson (10.5). Hill broke WSU's single season (83) and career (233) records for 3-point baskets, while Ferguson set the school shooting percentage record (.660). Four different freshmen earned starting assignments and Isaac Fontaine, a Pac-10 All-Freshmen selection, led the league in 3-point percentage (.449).

WSU's nonconference schedule paid big dividends as the Cougars started 7-0, tallied wins over NCAA teams Michigan State, Marquette and Alabama and won the prestigious San Juan Shootout. But it was the final road to the NCAA Tournament that was paved with gutty victories. The Cougars claimed come-from-behind wins in three of their last four regular season games, including a 94-82 dismantling of No. 16 Cal in the finale. That day Friel Court rocked with 11,019 fans, the largest home crowd since 1983.

The Cougars were the No. 8 seed of the East Regional in Landover, Md., and drew Boston College of the Big East Conference - the No. 9 seed. Both teams entered with identical 20-10 records and as the game unfolded, it was apparent how evenly the teams were matched. The one glaring difference between the two clubs proved to be the difference in the game as BC's 6-9, 220 senior Bill Curley scored 25 points with 10 rebounds to lead the Eagles to a 67-64 win.

WSU led by as many as 12 points in the first half and 38-28 at halftime. Curley and Co. fought to put the Eagles ahead 64-63 late in the second half. With eight ticks on the clock, Harris went to the foul line and made one of two shots to tie the game 64-64. Harris then fouled BC's Gerrod Abram, a 48 percent foul shooter, who broke the tie with a pair of free throws with five seconds left. A desperation halfcourt shot by Harris fell short with 1.2 seconds showing and a free throw by Howard Eisley made the final score.

Fontaine paced the Cougars with 17 points and Harris, WSU's player of the game by CBS, finished with 13. A crowd of 18,667 was on hand at the USAir Arena - the largest to see a Cougar basketball game. Five weeks after the NCAA contest, Sampson accepted the head coaching position at the University of Oklahoma.

COUGARS REACH NIT QUARTERFINALS IN EASTMAN'S DEBUT

Kevin Eastman's first year as Washington State's head coach was filled with plenty of surprises and success. WSU finished 18-12, defeated a school record five Associated Press Top 25 teams and reached the quarterfinals of the National Invitation Tournament.

The Cougars established themselves as the best offensive unit in school history. They led the nation in field goal percentage (.517). Immediately trailing the Cougars were UCLA (.515), North Carolina (.513) and Oklahoma State (.512) - all NCAA Final Four participants. WSU averaged 83.5 points per outing, tops all-time by a Cougar squad.

WSU's top seven scorers were comprised of two juniors (one transfer), three sophomores and two true freshmen. Sophomore Isaac Fontaine led the scoring list (18.5) and posted the fifth best single-season point total (555). Junior Mark Hendrickson, an All-Pac-10 first team pick, averaged 16.1 points, 9.0 rebounds. Eastman's first recruit, junior Shamon Antrum (13.7), walked away with the Fred Hessler Award as the newcomer of the year in the Pac-10. Donminic Ellison (11.3) set WSU's game (15) and season (192) assist records.

In the first round 94-82 win over Texas Tech, WSU posted its best field goal percentage (.667). During a nine-minute stretch in the first half, the Cougars made all eight field goal attempts and all six free throws. Fontaine paced WSU with 32 points and held Tech's leading scorer Mark Davis to two points.

Fontaine's driving basket with 30 seconds left led WSU past Illinois State 83-80 at Redbird Arena. All five starters scored in double figures led by Fontaine's 23 points.

The Cougars NIT trek came to a halt in Buffalo, N.Y., as Canisius College topped WSU 89-80 in front of 9,065 rambunctious fans at "The Aud", the largest home crowd in Canisius history. WSU cut Canisius' 11-point lead to four, 72-68, in the second half. During a WSU press, freshman Carlos Daniel was given a technical foul by the official at midcourt who thought Daniel knocked the ball out of the hands of a Canisius player trying to make the inbounds pass. Craig Wise made the two technical shots and WSU would get no closer. The Golden Griffins made just three baskets in the final eight minutes. Canisius made 27 of 30 foul shots, 22 straight in the second half.

COUGARS OVERCOME ADVERSITY FOR TRIP TO NIT

After a disastrous January in which Washington State posted a 1-6 record, the Cougars overcame adversity, displayed their true mettle and put together an impressive season-ending drive to earn a spot in postseason play for the third straight season.

Washington State won seven of its final 10 regular season games to reach the National Invitation Tournament for the second year in a row. Once there, the Cougars defeated Gonzaga 92-73 at Pullman before falling to eventual NIT champion Nebraska 82-73 in Lincoln to finish the year 18-11 overall with a 9-9 Pac-10 record.

All five starters returned for head coach Kevin Eastman, who became the only WSU hoops coach to take the Cougars to postseason tournaments in back-to-back years. Senior Mark Hendrickson led the Pac-10 in rebounding (9.5) and was sixth in league scoring (16.1). Hendrickson became WSU's first NBA pick of the '90s, signing with Philadelphia. Junior Isaac Fontaine paced WSU in scoring (18.1) and led the Pac-10 in 3-point accuracy (.485) with the fifth best percentage in the NCAA. Senior Shamon Antrum was third in team scoring (12.6) and second to Fontaine in 3-pointers (54). Junior point guard Donminic Ellison also scored in double figures (10.8) and posted the second best assist mark by a Cougar (151).

The Cougars earned their highest preseason ranking in school history - 28th Associated Press - and were poised to crack the top 25 for the first time since 1983 when WSU's season collapsed. Hendrickson fractured his left (shooting) hand Dec. 27 vs. San Jose State and he missed WSU's next six contests (Cougars 2-4 in his absence). The Cougars rebounded to win five straight in February (including a victory at No. 24 Stanford, the only Cardinal home loss), then two more in March vs. Arizona State (103 points, WSU's second best total in a Pac-10 game) and at USC (first win at Sports Arena since 1986).

In the NIT first round with Gonzaga, the Cougars built a 19-point halftime lead by shooting 66.7 percent from the field. Hendrickson led all scorers with 24 points, including 11 straight during a 15-0 WSU run. At Nebraska, the Cougars committed a season-high 22 turnovers, shot a season-low 42.9 percent at the free throw line and had three players foul out.

After being chosen to finish last in the Pacific-10 Conference prior to the season, the 2006-07 Washington State men's basketball team, led by first-year head coach Tony Bennett, surprised everyone, tying a school record with 26 wins, while its second-place Pac-10 finish tied for the best in school history.

With Bennett taking the coaching reigns over from his father, Dick Bennett, the Cougars opened their season with seven-straight wins, finishing their best month of November in history with a 7-0 record. Following five-straight home wins, the Cougs hit their first stumbling block, falling at Utah, 69-55.

WSU bounced back following the loss, defeating then-No. 18 Gonzaga, 77-67, snapping an eight-game losing streak to the Bulldogs. Three-straight wins catapulted the Cougars into Pac-10 play with an 11-1 record.

When Pac-10 play opened, the Cougars were thrown into the fire right away as they hit the road to take on No. 1 UCLA. Despite holding UCLA to just 27.6 percent shooting in the first half, WSU suffered its second loss of the season and opened league play at 0-1.

The Cougars bounced back, winning their next four, including a 77-73 defeat of then-No. 7 Arizona in overtime to jump into the AP Poll top 25 at No. 22 and the ESPN/USA Today Poll at No. 23, Jan. 8. Their appearance in the polls gave the Cougars their first AP ranking since Feb. 1983 (No. 22, Jan. 8).

Junior Kyle Weaver recorded the first triple-double in WSU history with 14 points, 13 rebounds and 10 assists, but Stanford used a last-second 3-pointer to pull out the 71-68 victory in overtime, Jan. 13.

After two more home victories, the No. 20/18 Cougars hosted No. 7 Oregon, Jan. 27. Junior Derrick Low put up a career-high 37 points and tied the school record with nine 3-pointers, but the Ducks used overtime for the 77-74 victory.

Following its fourth loss of the season, WSU opened a five-game winning streak before faltering twice more in league play. No. 13 WSU avoided two-straight losses in early March as it defeated No. 23 USC in double-overtime in Pullman.

The Cougars opened the Pac-10 Tournament as the No. 2 seed, defeating Washington in the quarterfinals before falling to USC in the semifinals. However, with a 25-7 record and No. 11/12 rankings, the Cougars felt good about their chances in the NCAA Tournament.

WSU's first NCAA Tournament appearance in 13 years looked promising as it entered the tournament as a No. 3 seed facing 14th-seeded Oral Roberts in the first round in Sacramento, Calif. The Cougars overcame a slow start, trailing 28-26 at halftime, to go on for their first tournament win since 1983 with a 70-54 defeat of ORU, moving on to face sixth-seeded Vanderbilt in the second round, March 17.

Washington State built an early 33-25 halftime lead, but Vanderbilt never let down in the game of missed WSU opportunities. Regulation ended with the score tied at 60. Trailing 69-66, Low hit a clutch 3-pointer, his third of the game, to tie the game at 69. The Cougars forced a Commodore turnover on the next possession, but couldn't convert as a block by Vanderbilt's Derrick Byars forced double-overtime.

Vanderbilt took advantage of three WSU turnovers in the second overtime period as the Cougars' magical season ended with a 78-74 double-overtime loss to the Commodores in the second round of the NCAA tournament.

WSU MAKES SECOND-STRAIGHT NCAA APPEARANCE

The Washington State basketball team entered the 2008 season with the highest expectations in school history. The Cougars appeared in the AP preseason rankings for the first time at No. 10, the Cougs were also No. 10 in the ESPN/USA Today Poll.

The 2008 Cougars returned four starters from the 2007 NCAA Tournament squad, including four-year starters, seniors Derrick Low, Kyle Weaver and Robbie Cowgill. In Head Coach Tony Bennett's second year, WSU ran through their nonconference schedule to a 12-0 record. The dozen wins included road victories at Baylor (67-64) and then-No. 17/19 Gonzaga (51-47). The win at Gonzaga marked the Cougars' first road victory over the Bulldogs since Dec. 13, 1977.

The Cougars started Pacific-10 Conference play by carrying the highest ranking in school history into Seattle to face rival Washington. The No. 4 Cougars fought past the Huskies 56-52. After besting USC on the road the Cougars sat at 14-0, the best start for a WSU team since the 1916-17 National Championship team. The Cougs dropped their next game to No. 5 UCLA, 81-74, in one of the most anticipated games in recent conference history.

At the halfway point the Cougars suffered their first three-game losing streak during Tony Bennett's tenure, dropping games to California, Stanford and UCLA.

The Cougs rebounded with a four-game win streak including WSU's first win at Oregon since Feb. 19, 1995. The win in Eugene also secured the Cougs' first season sweep of the Ducks in 13 years.

Down the stretch, WSU dropped games to Arizona and Stanford, giving each team a season sweep of the Cougars. WSU finished the regular season by completing the season sweep of Washington in a thrilling, double-overtime 76-73 victory on senior night. The win was the Cougars' seventh straight over the Huskies.

The Cougars finished Pac-10 play with an 11-7 record and tied for third place in the conference. WSU bowed out in the semifinals of the conference tournament, but not before securing a spot in the NCAA Tournament. The Cougars were selected as the No. 4 seed in the East Region. The selection made Coach Bennett the second WSU Head Coach to lead two teams to the tournament and first to do so in back-to-back seasons.

In their first round game against 13th-seeded Winthrop, the Cougars overcame a sluggish first half to outpace the Eagles 71-40. WSU allowed a mere 11 points in the second half. Rochestie controlled the game on offense as his 10 assists are a WSU single game NCAA Tournament record.The win moved WSU into the second round for the second consecutive year. This year they faced fifth-seeded Notre Dame.

Against the Fighting Irish, the Cougars turned up the defense once again. The Cougs jumped out to a 32-19 halftime lead and never looked back. They held the high-scoring Irish (80.5 points per game) to 41 points on 13-of-53 shooting.

The 81 combined points the Cougs allowed is the second lowest total for the first two rounds in the NCAA Tournament since the inception of the shot clock. The Cougars' mark was only bettered by UCLA, the No. 1 seed of the West Region, giving up 78 points, also in the 2008 Tournament.

The win over Notre Dame put WSU in the regional semifinal for the first time in school history. The Cougars also joined the 1941 group as the only WSU teams with two wins in a single NCAA Tournament. In the Sweet 16, the Cougs drew top-seed and top-ranked North Carolina.

In the first match up between the two schools, the Tar Heels used their speed, athleticism and tournament experience to jump out to a 35-21 halftime advantage. Despite the deficit, the Cougars had hope after limiting National Player of the Year Tyler Hansbrough to just two points in the first half. But UNC was able to maintain the momentum and get Hansbrough in a rhythm, scoring 16 after intermission, to advance past the Cougars 68-47.

The loss brought the end of an era. It was the last game at WSU for Cowgill, Low and Weaver, all of whom had stuck with the program through their first two seasons with a combined 23 wins to see the program come full circle, ending with back-to-back 26 win seasons.

SENIOR HIGHLIGHTS

- Paul Lindemann led the Cougars with 326 points (10.2 per game average) and WSU finished national runner-up to Wisconsin in 1940-41.
- Ron Bennink sank 185 free throws in 1954-55 to set the WSU single-season record.
- Ted Werner grabbed 24 rebounds against UCLA, Feb. 13, 1965 to set a then-Cougar single-game record…his performance still ranks second on WSU's single-game list.
- Stuart House connected 12-of-13 shots from the field to set a Cougar record for field goal percentage in a game (92.3) during a 69-67 win at USC, Feb. 23, 1980.
- In 1979-80, Don Collins set school single-season records with 23.1 points per game, 76 steals, 2.71 steals per game.
- Collins scored 30 or more points seven times during the 1979-80 season and helped the Cougars reach the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 39 seasons.
- Terrence Lewis totaled 1,106 minutes to set the WSU single-season record and the Cougars advanced to the 1992 NIT.
- Fred Ferguson shot 66 percent from the field to set the WSU single-season record in 1993-94 as the Cougars earned a bid to the NCAA Tournament.
- Isaac Fontaine set a WSU single-season scoring record in 1996-97 with 657 points.
- Thomas Kelati made seven 3-pointers and scored 27 points to lead WSU to a 70-63 upset win at No. 11 Arizona, Jan. 29, 2005.

FRESHMAN HIGHLIGHTS

- Steve Puidokas recorded three of the top scoring games in WSU freshman history, including 31 at San Diego, Jan. 29, 1974 and finished the season with a school freshman record 454 points.
- Ricky Brown started 17 games, shot 54 percent from the field and earned a spot on the Pacific-10 All-Rookie team in 1982-83.
- During the 1989-90 season, Bennie Seltzer set WSU freshman records for 3-pointers (62) and assists (114).
- Rob Corkrum posted 36 blocks and 1.3 blocks per game during the 1990-91 season to lead all Cougars in both categories and establish WSU freshman records.
- Mark Hendrickson ripped down a WSU freshman record 18 rebounds during a 94-71 win over Azusa Pacific at the Texas Star Classic in San Diego, Dec. 18, 1992.
- Isaac Fontaine set a WSU freshman record with 33 points during a 76-71 victory over Michigan State at the San Juan Shootout, Nov. 27, 1993.
- Blake Pengelly shot 49 percent from beyond the 3-point line in 1996-97 to set the WSU single-season record.
- Mike Bush's 47 steals in 1998-99 set a school freshman record and tie for 15th on the WSU single-season list.
- Marcus Moore became one of 14 players in Cougar history to reach the century mark for assists in a season when he handed out 100 in 2000-01.
- Aron Baynes tied a WSU freshman record with five blocks at San Diego State, Dec. 10, 2005 and the Cougars defeated the eventual NCAA participant Aztecs 60-49.

STEVE PUIDOKAS RETIRED NUMBER

Steve Puidokas burst upon the WSU basketball scene as a freshman in 1973-74, and by the time he left the Palouse, he had set five school records. He became the first basketball player and only the second student-athlete in WSU history to have his jersey number retired when he was honored Feb. 26, 1977.

As a freshman, he averaged 16.8 points and 8.9 rebounds a game, earning All-District 8 honors, second team All-Pacific-8 recognition and third team All-West Coast accolades. He also became the first freshman selected to the Jayhawk and Rainbow Classic tournament teams.

As a sophomore, Puidokas set school records with 42 points against Gonzaga and a 22.4 points per game season average. He led the Pacific-8 in scoring and was second in rebounding. He received an invitation to the Pan-American team tryouts and was a second team All-Pac-8 selection.

During his junior campaign, Puidokas averaged 18.0 points and 10.6 rebounds per outing while garnering second team All-Pacific-8 honors for the third straight season. He became WSU's all-time leading scorer that season.

Puidokas capped his career at WSU by averaging 17.2 points and 9.7 rebounds during his senior season. He left WSU as the Cougars' all-time leader with 1,894 points and 992 rebounds. He was named second team All-Pacific-8 for the fourth time, earned a second team All-West Coast selection and was a District 8 all-star. At the end of his career, he ranked fourth on the all-time Pac-8 list in scoring and seventh in rebounding.

Puidokas still holds the WSU career marks for scoring average (18.6 points per game), field goals (734) and rebounds. In addition, he ranks second in scoring, third in free throws (426) and fourth in rebounding average (9.7).

FRIEL COURT

The Washington State men's basketball team enters its 36th-straight season at Friel Court inside the Wallis Beasley Performing Arts Coliseum. WSU won its 200th game all-time at the venerable facility Dec. 2, 1998 when the Cougars defeated Portland State 74-71 and its 250th game Nov. 17, 2007 with a 67-44 victory over Texas-San Antonio.

The Cougars first moved to Friel Court Dec. 1, 1973, and christened their new home with an 80-78 victory over Louisiana State in front of 9,000 fans.

WSU has earned a postseason berth eight times while calling Friel Court home. The 1979-80 season marked the first of those eight occasions as the Cougars advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 1940-41 team finished as the national runner-up.

The Cougars won 12-of-13 games at Friel in 1979-80 and drew a school second-best total 110,206 fans. George Raveling's squad won its last four games at home that season, including a 69-51 win over fourth-ranked Pacific-10 champion Oregon State, Feb. 16 in front of a then Friel Court record 12,327 fans.

The 1982-83 season saw the Cougars return to the NCAA Tournament on the strength of a perfect 14-0 record at Friel. The season finale was a thriller as WSU's Bryan Pollard's tip-in at the buzzer gave the Cougars a 70-68 victory over sixth-ranked UCLA, triggering a Friel Court record crowd of 12,422 to storm the court in celebration.

Kelvin Sampson's 1991-92 Cougar team advanced to the National Invitational Tournament and finished the season 22-11, including a 14-3 record at Friel. WSU notched its 20th win in a season for the first time since 1982-83 when it defeated No. 8 USC 82-68 March 8 in Pullman.

Two years later, the Cougars made their first of three-consecutive postseason appearances as Sampson guided WSU to a 20-11 season. That year, WSU was 10-3 at home, including a 94-82 victory over 16th-ranked California in the final game of the regular season, March, 12.

Kevin Eastman's first season as head coach on the Palouse, 1994-95, saw the Cougars post an 18-12 record and advance to the quarterfinals of the National Invitational Tournament.

WSU won 13 of its 15 games at Friel, including four wins over ranked opponents. The Cougars swept 17th-ranked California (83-71, Jan. 5) and 23rd-ranked Stanford (77-63, Jan. 7) to begin Pacific-10 play. WSU made it three straight home wins over ranked opponents with an 83-78 victory over 17th-ranked Oregon, Jan. 19. The final home game of the year resulted in an 84-71 win over 15th-ranked Arizona State, March 4.

The 1995-96 campaign marked WSU's most recent appearance in the National Invitational Tournament as the Cougars advanced to the second round and finished with an 18-11 record.

The Cougars recorded a 9-3 mark at Friel and drew 97,284 fans, fourth most in school history. WSU's biggest home win came March 14 when the Cougars defeated Gonzaga 92-73 in the first round of the National Invitational Tournament.

In 2000-01, WSU recorded 10 wins at Friel, the most since the 1994-95 squad went 13-2 in Pullman.

Dick Bennett took over the Cougar program in 2003-04 and WSU averaged 4,504 fans at Friel, the most since 1998-99. In 2004-05, average attendance at Friel rose to 4,907, the most since the 1996-97 campaign.

Bennett concluded his three-year tenure as Cougar head coach in the 2005-06 season with an 8-5 record at Friel, the best home mark for the Cougars since the 2000-01 season. WSU defeated 16th-ranked Washington 77-64 Feb. 7, marking the first time the Cougars defeated a ranked opponent at Friel in nine seasons. The 2005-06 season saw the most people visiting Friel (49,358) since the 1996-97 season.

Tony Bennett took over the head coaching reigns from his father at the conclusion of the 2005-06 season. In his first season at the helm, the younger Bennett's 2006-07 squad brought in an average of 7,466 fans, the most since 1995-96. The total of 104,525 fans that visited Friel Court marked the first time WSU drew over 100,000 total fans in a season since 1979-80 (110,206).

On its way to the school's fifth NCAA Tournament appearance, WSU defeated three ranked opponents on its home court while hosting a total of five ranked squads in 2006-07. The Cougars went 12-2 at Friel Court, their most wins in the arena since the 1994-95 squad went 13-2. Their lone losses came to then-No. 2 UCLA and in overtime to then-No. 7 Oregon (77-74).

The following season, 2007-08, Bennett's Cougars brought a school record of 120,083 total fans to Friel Court, averaging 9,237 fans per game. On its way to its second-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, WSU compiled a 9-4 mark at home, including its first victory over Oregon since 2001. The average of 9,237 fans per game is the second-most in school history and the most since 1976-77 (9,385).

Friel Court has been the site of NCAA first and second round games (1975, 1982 and 1985). In fact, Friel Court was the first stop on UCLA's 1975 NCAA title run, the 10th and final championship for head coach John Wooden. The Bruins needed overtime to defeat Michigan 103-91.

The arena, which currently seats 11,671 for basketball, was formally dedicated in honor of longtime Washington State Head Coach Jack Friel, who directed the Cougars to the 1941 NCAA title game. In the spring of 1981, the coliseum was named in honor of past Washington State Vice President Wallis Beasley. Heading into the 2007-08 season, the court will sport a new look after being newly refurbished and painted.

The first athletic event held in the coliseum was a National Basketball Association exhibition game between the Seattle SuperSonics and the Portland Trail Blazers September 25, 1973. The first University event held at the Facility was the Washington State commencement June 3, 1973. Commencement has been held there every year since.

KEYARENA

For the fourth-straight season, the Cougar men's basketball team will travel to the Emerald City for a "home" game when WSU hosts Montana State, Dec. 13, 2008 at KeyArena.

Located at the Seattle Center, on the north side of downtown Seattle, KeyArena opened in 1995 and seats over 17,000 for basketball. Owned and operated by the city of Seattle, the venue is the home of the WNBA's Seattle Storm and served as the home of the NBA's Seattle SuperSonics prior to the team's move to Oklahoma City in 2008. The site also served as host for the 1999 and 2004 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship First and Second Rounds.

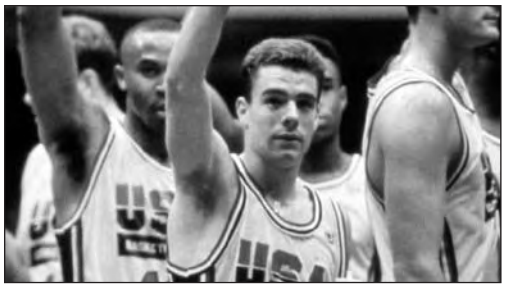

Derrick Low
Member of the 2007 USA Pan American Team
- Started the final three games.
- Averaged 14.3 points per game in all three starts, while USA went 3-0 with Low in the starting lineup.
- Shot 50 percent from the field and 6-for-16 on 3-pointers in the five games overall. In his first game as a starter he was 5-for-7 from the field and finished with 13 points.
- Led team with 16 points in team's final game, a 77-74 victory over Panama.

Kyle Weaver
Member of the 2007 USA Pan American Team
- Started the first two games
- Scored four points in the opener against Uruguay.
- Added four rebounds, an assist and a steal in Pan American Games debut.
- Grabbed seven boards and added an assist in USA's game-two loss to Panama.

Aron Baynes
Member of the 2007 Australian World University Games Team
- Team Ranked third at the championships with a team-leading 18.1 points per game and second with 9.0 rebounds per game in seven contests.
- Registered a double-double with game-highs 19 points and 12 rebounds in the opening round game against Korea.
- Was 9-for-9 from the field with 21 points and nine rebounds (both game highs) against Angola.
- Added his second double-double of the competition with 21 points and 10 boards in Australia's victory over Kazakhstan.

Nikola Koprivica
Captain of the 2008 Serbian U20 European Championship Team
- Team took home the championship with a 7-1 record in the tournament, while Koprivica served as the team's lone captain.
- Played all eight games, averaging 4.5 points and 1.9 assists in 13.5 minutes of action per outing.
- Scored a personal best nine points going 2-for-3 from beyond the 3-point arc against France in Serbia's lone loss of the tournament. Added three assists.
- Scored five points, dished out two assists and grabbed three boards in Serbia's victory over Lithuania in the championship game.

Tony Bennett
Member of the 1991 USA Pan American Team
- Started at point guard for the United States.
- Averaged 6.1 points and a team-leading 3.3 assists per game.
- USA finished third, falling to eventual champion Puerto Rico in the semifinals.

With Derrick Low and Kyle Weaver's participation in the 2007 Pan American Games...
- They became the first Cougars to represent the United States in men's basketball at the Pan American Games.
- They were the first WSU male student-athletes, past or present, to don a USA uniform in international sport competition since Mike Kinkade captured a baseball gold medal at the 2000 Olympics in Sydney, Australia.
- Washington State University became the eighth school to have two student-athletes selected for a USA Pan American Games squad in the same year.

COUGARS IN AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND

- The Cougar men's basketball team traveled to Australia and New Zealand for 14 days in June, 2007.
- WSU played six games in a nine day span, finishing the trip with a 4-2 record, with both losses coming by one point apiece.
- Highlighting the trip were visits to former Cougar Thomas Abercrombie's home in Auckland, New Zealand and a stop at Aron Baynes' native Cairns, Australia.

"What a tremendous opportunity and experience our trip to Australia and New Zealand was for the Cougar men's basketball program. The competition against professional teams provided great feedback for where we are strong and where we need to improve. Playing six games in nine days was physically and mentally challenging; hopefully, it toughened our team and developed our chemistry. This trip was a once in a lifetime opportunity from a cultural and educational standpoint as well."

—WSU Head Coach Tony Bennett

"Australia was amazing, from diving at the Great Barrier Reef to eating kangaroo at Baynes' house. The team got to grow together and have great experiences on and off the court."

—WSU Senior Taylor Rochestie

Why Washington

"Daven's presence and participation at WSU and the Cougar team has been life-transforming for him. We are so grateful for the care, support and opportunities given to him through Coach Bennett and his staff. The coaches are not only teachers, but mentors and friends who truly care about his physical, emotional, mental and spiritual wellbeing. As Daven's parents, this is of immeasurable value to us.

Daven's passion for basketball has deepened because of his commitment his coaches have to the program and each one of its players."

—Jeff and Mary Harmeling
(Daven Harmeling's parents)

"We're grateful for WSU's basketball program, under Coach Bennett's leadership, which gives Abe a great opportunity to develop not only as a player but also as a person and to contribute to the Cougars' winning tradition."

—John and Judy Lodwick
(Abe Lodwick's parents)

"The decision for James to attend WSU was based on Coach Bennett and his staffs' passion for God and their emphasis on character. It was very important to us that James be in an environment that would reinforce our value system. The fact that they have had great basketball success was just a bonus. We are very thankful that our son has been afforded this opportunity."

—Ronnie and Annette Watson
(James Watson's parents)

State University?

"From the time a child is born, you as a parent are always thinking about their future. We as a family were faced with a difficult decision as to where to send our son to college. A lot of people thought we were losing our minds for sending our son to the other side of the country, but after our visit with Coach Bennett and his coaching staff at Washington State, we knew this was the right fit for our son.

We were also told that you will know when you know where to send your child and that it would just feel right. That's what my family felt after our visit with Coach Bennett in our home. After our visit to Washington State where we experienced the family atmosphere and closeness of the players and the coaching staff, we knew this was the place for our son. Secondly, the opportunity for Marcus to play earlier than he would have at another school made a difference."

—Jerome and Gaynell Capers
(Marcus Capers' parents)

"The biggest issue for us was coaching. We could not have picked a better mentor and leader than Coach Bennett. His commitment to his players, his 'team' style of play, and the fact that he himself was a left-handed point guard were all important factors. Taylor wanted to be where he could contribute and support his team to be a major force in the NCAA. The fact that he could play in the Pac-10 and be where he had spirited fans at WSU made the choice even more exciting!"

—Howard Rochestie
(Taylor Rochestie's father)

"We are fortunate in our lives when circumstances align with our goals, aspirations and dreams. Such was the case when our son, Taylor, visited Washington State University and met Coach Bennett and his staff. In Coach Bennett, Taylor saw the player and the man he wanted to be. As parents we were inspired by the guiding principles for the team – unity, thankfulness, humility, servanthood and passion.

Now a senior, we see in Taylor the results of Coach Bennett and his staff's commitment to these principles. Through their guidance, support and caring, Taylor has grown physically, emotionally, mentally and spiritually. Taylor has found a home within the Pullman community, a family within Washington State University and a partnership within the basketball team's players and staff. Taylor truly is in God's pocket!"

—Christina Campbell
(Taylor Rochestie's mother)

Cougar Student-Athlete Development

Student-Athlete Development

Our Student-Athlete Development unit initiates support for academic and personal success during on-campus recruiting visits with prospective student-athletes, and continues providing support and services until student-athletes graduate from WSU. Our student-athlete development staff is committed to developing and implementing comprehensive and effective programs to assist student-athletes in identifying and meeting their academic and career goals leading to graduation and career development. We take a "life skills" approach when assisting student-athletes with class selection, major selection, graduation planning, career development, time management, goal setting, study skills, and learning strategies.

Our focus is the student-athlete and his personal development. We reinforce the value of maximizing the educational and career opportunities at WSU. And, most importantly, our staff emphasizes the importance of student-athletes taking personal responsibility and ownership in developing their academic and career plans. Our 93 percent graduation rate for those seniors who have exhausted their eligibility (over the past 10 years), second among all Pacific-10 Conference schools in that time, reflects our consistent commitment to academic success while striking a balance between academics and athletics.

Thad Hathaway
Academic Support Services

Thad Hathaway enters his seventh year at Washington State University and his fourth as assistant director for academic support services. His duties include counseling, advising, supporting, developing and enhancing academic performance for WSU's student-athletes. He works directly with men's basketball, baseball and men's and women's golf.

A 1997 graduate of the University of Idaho, Hathaway is in his tenth year working in academic services for college athletics. He spent four years at his alma mater prior to coming to WSU. He completed his master's degree at Idaho in 2002 while serving as the Vandals' academic program advisor for athletics.

Hathaway lives in Pullman with his wife Diane and five children, Alison, Cody, Caleb, Gabe and Seth.

The Mission

The academic support services staff provides comprehensive support for all student-athletes. The type and level of programming, monitoring and support provided to each student-athlete is dependent upon the individual needs of each student-athlete, based on the review of existing academic information and academic assessments administered by the academic support services staff and/or University Testing Services. The academic support services staff also encourages student-athletes to access existing university resources. The academic counselors assist student-athletes with class selection, major selection, graduation planning, career planning, time management, goal setting, study skills and learning strategies. The counselors work closely with the University faculty to monitor grades and class attendance. The academic staff also communicates with the staff and faculty to provide assistance with rescheduling class assignments and exams missed due to team travel."

Cougar Athletic Training Services

Prevention of athletic injuries is the primary goal of the Washington State University athletic staff, along with the care and rehabilitation of student-athletes.

When injuries do occur, the Cougar staff provides the very best in care, utilizating state-of-the-art equipment. A new hydrotherapy complex will be opening in the fall of 2008 to further meet the needs of student-athletes.

- More than 40 students obtaining clinical hours in a nationally-accredited athletic training education program
- Three sports medicine trained team physicians
- Coordinator of Sports Nutrition/Registered Dietician

Nick Gallotto
Certified Athletic Trainer

Nick Gallotto is in his second season both with the Cougar men's basketball program and at Washington State University. He is in charge of providing optimal sports medicine support through preventative care programs and oversees the rehabilitation of injured student-athletes.

In addition to his men's basketball duties, Gallotto also works with the men's and women's golf programs at WSU.

A 2007 graduate of Endicott College in Beverly, Mass., Gallotto worked with the softball, football, men's basketball and men's ice hockey teams while receiving his degree. Prior to arriving on the Palouse, Gallotto interned at Worchester Polytechnic Institute (WPI) where he worked with the men's and women's basketball programs. He also interned at Stoneham High School, working with the fall sport programs and at High Performance Sports, Inc., where he assisted with an orthopedic surgeon and his team of strength and conditioning specialists.

Gallotto is currently pursuing his Master's degree in human nutrition at WSU. With the Cougars, he also oversees WSU athletic training students throughout their clinical hours and teaches lecture classes for both the first and second year athletic training students.

A native of Sterling, Mass., Gallotto enjoys outdoor activities such as hiking, kayaking and camping, watching and playing sports, baking and cooking. He is the son of Debbie and Michael Gallotto.

With two floors covering 14,000 square feet and featuring state-of-the-art equipment, WSU's weight room is considered one of the top facilities in the nation.

David Lang
Director of Strength and Conditioning

Entering his 10th year with the Washington State University strength and conditioning program, David Lang was promoted to director in the fall of 2008 following nine years as the associate director of physical development for the Cougars.

A certified club coach for the USA weightlifting, Lang graduated from Wisconsin-Whitewater in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in exercise science. He earned his master's degree in exercise science at Austin Peay State University in 1995. He was the head strength coach for the Governors from 1994-95.

In 1994, Lang, a native of Fort Atkinson, Wis., became a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength & Conditioning Association. He is also certified by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association. Before coming to WSU, Lang worked at the University of Illinois-Champaign (1995-96) and Colgate University (1996-98). A native of Fort Atkinson, Wis., Lang and his wife Julie have two sons, Joseph Michael and Cameron James.

Elson S. Floyd
President

Elson S. Floyd is Washington State University's 10th president. He took office in May of 2007 after serving as president of the four-campus University of Missouri system during 2002-2007.

"Affordability, accessibility and accountability" are keystones to his administration leading WSU. He puts high priority on WSU being a research leader and having a global presence. Furthermore, he endorses diversity of thought, opinion, perspective, viewpoints, race and ethnicity as characteristics of a world-class university.

Floyd, 51, served as president of Western Michigan University from 1999 to 2002, and held several administrative positions at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill, including deanships in student affairs and the College of Arts and Sciences.

Previously, he spent two years as executive director of the state of Washington Higher Education Coordinating Board, the agency responsible for statewide coordination, planning, oversight, policy analysis and student financial aid programs for Washington's post-secondary education system. From 1990 to 1993, he served as vice president for student services, vice president for administration and executive vice president at Eastern Washington University.

He began his career in 1978 at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he held deanships in the Division of Student Affairs, the General College and the College of Arts and Sciences. From 1988 to 1990, he was assistant vice president for student services for the UNC system office, where he helped develop and articulate student affairs and academic affairs policy for the 16-campus university system.

A native of Henderson, N.C., Floyd holds a bachelor of arts degree in political science and speech, a master of education degree in adult education, and a doctor of philosophy degree in higher and adult education, all from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Floyd and his wife, Carmento Floyd, have two grown children.

Jim Sterk
Director of Athletics

Washington native James M. Sterk was appointed Washington State University's director of athletics in June of 2000. In his eight years, Sterk has seen unprecedented growth and success by the Cougars' 17 intercollegiate teams and 450 individuals who compete for WSU annually.

On the academic front, WSU earned 114 selections to Pacific-10 Conference All-Academic teams in 2007-08. That figure represented the most student-athletes to earn such an honor during an academic year in school history. WSU nearly reached this standard in 2005-06 with 109 selections to conference all-academic teams after setting the mark of 113 during the 2004-05 academic year.

On the field, Cougar Athletics has enjoyed extraordinary achievements highlighted by three consecutive 10-win seasons by the football program from 2001-03. Most recently, the men's basketball team has made back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament (2007 & 2008), the women's rowing team made its second NCAA Championship appearance in three years, finishing eighth in 2008, following up its fourth-place finish in 2006, the highest finish ever by a WSU women's team in NCAA postseason competition.

Facility improvements have also been among projects Sterk has tackled. Following the 2006 football season, the initial phases of a renovation to Martin Stadium, the home of Cougar football, began with Phases I and II which were completed in time for the 2008 football season. Planned for completion in the fall of 2008 are a state-of-the-art rowing tank and a hydrotherapy facility to further meet the needs of student-athletes. In addition, plans are underway for an ambitious capital improvement plan that will enhance many other WSU athletic facilities.

A 1980 graduate of Western Washington University, Sterk received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University. His professional career has included positions at North Carolina, Maine, Seattle Pacific, Tulane and Portland State, the latter as director of athletics for five years before joining the Cougar staff.

The foundation of Sterk's leadership plan is based on five areas: the student-athlete experience, resource acquisition, personnel, political dynamics, and facilities. All five areas have enjoyed growth in his first eight years at Washington State University.

Anne McCoy
Senior Associate Director Of Athletics/SWA

Veteran intercollegiate athletics administrator Anne McCoy has served Washington State University since 2001 and was promoted from associate director to senior associate director of athletics in 2004. Her appointment to senior woman administrator came in the summer of 2007.

In her capacity as senior associate director of athletics, she is charged with overseeing all aspects of WSU's athletic budget and supervises several areas within the department including the business office, equipment, computer operations, and event management and facility operations. She also serves as a liaison for men's and women's basketball.

McCoy serves on several Pacific-10 Conference committees, including the Executive Committee as vice-president for the Pac-10 Council, chair of the Senior Woman Administrator Committee and on the Compliance and Enforcement, Awards Review, Medical Care, and Student-Athlete Advisory committees.

A Wisconsin native, McCoy earned a bachelor's degree in sports management in 1989 from the University of Massachusetts. While an undergraduate, she worked for the Pittsburgh Penguins professional hockey organization, expanding the club's season ticket base. McCoy also served an internship as the assistant athletic business manager at the University of Connecticut, and was instrumental in designing and implementing a comprehensive computerized budget-tracking system.

McCoy served in several capacities at the University of Maine from 1989-1995, lastly as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator. At Maine, she supervised men's basketball, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's swimming and softball in addition to the athletic business office, ticket office, retail store and cheerleading staff and operations. She took a similar administrative positive at St. Louis University from 1995-96.

In 1996, McCoy moved west, joining the staff at Portland State University as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator, and was promoted to senior associate director of athletics in 1998. At PSU, she managed all internal staff and the daily operations of the department, representing the director of athletics as needed. McCoy also supervised men's and women's golf, cross country/track and field, and women's volleyball, soccer, tennis and softball.

McCoy and her husband Brian have two children, daughter Taylor and son Jake.

Ken Casavant
Faculty Athletics Representative

Professor Ken Casavant, a member of the Washington State University family since 1967, currently serves as WSU's Faculty Athletics Representative to the Pacific-10 Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association. He is a past president of the Pac-10 and most recently served on the NCAA Division I Management Council.

Casavant came to WSU as a graduate research assistant in the Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics. He was named an assistant professor in 1971, an associate professor in 1975 and a full professor in 1980.

In 2004, Casavant received the honor of giving the Distinguished Faculty Address, the University's oldest award and also received the Sahlin Excellence in Public Service award for the University. In 1979, Casavant received the R.M. Wade award for outstanding teacher in the college of agriculture at WSU, and in 1990, he earned the distinguished WSU Faculty of the Year award. Casavant was elected vice-chair (1991-92) and chair (1992-93) of the WSU Faculty Senate and has been accorded the Distinguished Teacher award by the American Agricultural Economics Association. He was named Distinguished Scholar by the Western Agricultural Economics Association in 2003 for his nationally recognized work as a transportation economist.

During his tenure at WSU, Casavant has served as associate director for the Washington State Transportation Center (1984-87) and the interim Vice-Provost for Academic Affairs and interim Vice-Provost for Research (1998).

The North Dakota native is a 1965 graduate of North Dakota State University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural economics. He received his master's degree from NDSU, followed by a Ph.D., from WSU in 1971.

Ken and his wife Dorothy have two grown daughters, Michele and Colette.

FOOTBALL

Paul Wulff, 1st Year

Paul Wulff became WSU's 31st head football coach in December, 2007, when he returned to his alma mater after spending the past eight years as head coach at Eastern Washington University. Wulff assembled a 53-40 record at Eastern Washington, leading the Eagles to three postseason appearances.

VOLLEYBALL

Andrew Palileo, 1st Year

New to WSU volleyball but not new to coaching, Andrew Palileo brings a career reord of 239-141 after finding success at South Dakota State in both the NCAA Div. II and Div. I levels. He assembled a staff prior to arriving in Pullman and they have moved quickly to establish strong relationships on the recruiting trails.

SOCCER

Matt Potter, 6th Year

Matt Potter, in his sixth season, has led Washington State to three-straight winning seasons, an unprecedented feat for Cougar soccer since joining the Pacific-10 Conference. Washington State is averaging just over 10 wins per season during that span and last year knocked off eventual-national champion USC.

CROSS COUNTRY

Jason Drake, 5th Year

In his seventh year of coaching the Cougar distance runners and his fifth year as head coach of the cross country teams, Drake has mentored 18 new entries in the school's top 10 performance lists. Sara Trane, two-time Pac-10 steeplechase champion, leads a large group of accomplished returnees for the 2008-09 seasons.

SWIMMING

Erica Quam, 7th Year

During her six years at Washington State, three Erica Quam coached teams have scored points at the NCAA Championships. Her student-athletes, including 2008 Olympian Rugile Mileisyte and 2007 All-American Erin McCleave, have set 13 school records and garnered 40 Pac-10 All-Academic honors, including 20 first-team selections.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Tony Bennett, 3rd Year

In just two seasons as head coach, Tony Bennett holds a 52-17 record. He became the first head coach to lead the Cougars to two-straight NCAA Tournament appearances, including their first 'Sweet' 16' appearance in 2008. In 2007 he became the most decorated coach in Pac-10 history with nine national coach-of-the-year honors.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

June Daugherty, 2nd Year

June Daugherty, in her second season leading the Cougars, brought a wealth of experience in building winning programs. In her first season Daugherty brought in one of the nation's top-ranked recruiting classes and more than tripled home attendance. A former finalist for National Coach of the Year, Daugherty is looking to take her third different school to the NCAA Tournament.

GOLF

Walt Williams, 11th Year

Since taking over the WSU men's and women's golf programs in 1998, Walt Williams' teams have re-written the record books and crowned two All-Americans. Both the men's and women's teams have competed in the NCAA West Regionals during his tenure. Williams is the winningest coach in school history, compiling a total of 26 team titles, including four in 2007-08.

TENNIS

Lisa Hart, 6th Year

The Cougar tennis program, under the direction of sixth-year head coach Lisa Hart, has been nationally ranked each of the last five seasons and has recorded 14 wins each of the last three years, resulting in three consuctive winning campaigns. In 2008 the Cougars reached the NCAA tournament for the first time since the 2002 season.

BASEBALL

Don Marbut, 5th Year

Don Marbut, in his fifth year as WSU's head coach and sixth with the program, has skippered the Cougars to three-consecutive winning seasons, a first for the program since 1994. He has mentored 10 Major League Baseball draft picks and led the Cougars to a national ranking in two of the last three seasons.

ROWING

Jane LaRiviere, 7th Year

Jane LaRiviere has led her teams to four NCAA Championships in her six years at WSU, including twice in the last three seasons. In 2008 the Cougars finished eighth at the NCAA Championships, only bettered by her squad's fourth-place finish in 2006. LaRiviere was awarded Pac-10 and CRCA West Regional Coach-of-the-Year honors in 2006.

TRACK & FIELD

Rick Sloan, 15th Year

Rick Sloan is the dean of WSU coaches, having been with the program for 36 years, including the last 14 as head coach of both the men's and women's programs. He has directed 32 WSU athletes to NCAA Outdoor All-America status 54 times and mentored 22 Cougar athletes to NCAA Indoor All-America status 36 times.

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT MISSION STATEMENT

It is the mission of the Athletic Department to create and foster an environment which provides opportunities for all student-athletes to enrich their collegiate experience through participation on athletic teams which are competitive at the conference and national level. In concert with the mission and values of Washington State University, the department is dedicated to providing opportunities, which will enhance the intellectual, physical, social, moral and cultural development of the whole person, while conducting all activities with honesty and integrity in accordance with the principles of good sportsmanship and ethical conduct. The Athletic Department values gender and ethnic diversity and is committed to providing equitable opportunities for all students and staff. The department will pursue its mission while upholding the values, purposes and policies of Washington State University, the Pacific-10 Conference, and the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA POLICIES

PRINT AND ELECTRONIC MEDIA

Please direct all credential requests to assistant athletic media relations director and basketball SID Jessica Schmick in the WSU athletic media relations office (see contact information below).

Credential requests should be made 48 hours in advance. Credentials are available at the Athletic Media Relations Office prior to game day. Otherwise, all credentials will be left at the tunnel entrance on the Southeast side of the Beasley Performing Arts Coliseum.

Credentials are issued on an individual-game basis and should be requested as soon as possible. Priority is given to those print and electronic media outlets that cover Washington State or its opponent on a regular basis. In order to qualify for a credential, a news agency must have a full-time sports director or editor.

Media credentials for online media services will be granted to those agencies that meet one of the following; 1.) Online service is the official website of one of the participating institutions and/or 2.) Agency is the official online service of a national over-the-air or cable network or established publication and is staffed by fulltime employees.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Credential requests should be made to the Athletic Media Relations Office per the above guidelines. Photographers are permitted to work the baseline areas beyond the end lines. No photographer is permitted to shoot from the sidelines at any time. A green photo vest will be provided to photographers and must be worn at all times. Photographers that do no follow these guidelines will be removed from the facilities.

MEDIA PARKING

A limited number of season passes are available to those Washington State beat writers, photographers and broadcasters. "R" passes permit media members to park along North Fairway Road. Single "A" and "B" passes are also available which allow members of the media to park in various areas around campus. Specific parking instructions will be distributed with the parking passes.

Television parking requests must go through Associate Director of Athletics for Event and Facility Operations John David Wicker (509-335-0282; jdwicker@wsu.edu).

TELECOMMUNICATIONS

Visiting media, including play-by-play radio stations, can order phones through WSU Information Technology Services at 509-335-3355.

MEDIA SERVICES

Washington State University uses the StatCrew computer program to produce the official box scores and statistical books for all games. These materials will be sent via fax and e-mail to the sports information offices of visiting opponents as well as any media outlets requested by the opponent's sport information contact. Rosters, pregame notes, halftime and final statistics and a play-by-play account of the game will be supplied to working media.

POSTGAME PROCEDURES

The Washington State locker room is closed at both home and away games. A member of the WSU Athletic Media Relations Office will take requests for players with about two minutes remaining at home games.

Following a cooling off period and any radio obligations, Coach Bennett and selected players will be brought to meet the media in the Cougar Lounge. Postgame arrangements with visiting coaches and players will be made at the discretion of the visiting sports information director.

WEEKDAY INTERVIEWS

Requests for coach and player interviews must be made to Jessica Schmick in the WSU Athletic Media Relations Office. Please give 24 hours notice for all requests.

Head Coach

WSU head coach Tony Bennett holds a press conference every Tuesday of the season at noon in the WSU Athletic Media Relations Office (Bohler Athletic Complex Room 195). In addition, digital recordings of the press conference will be available for playback. He is also available on the Pac-10 Conference Call each Tuesday of the Pac-10 season. Any other interviews must be arranged through the WSU Athletic Media Relations Office.

Player Interviews

All interviews must be arranged through the athletic media relations office at least 24 hours in advance. Players will be available at a designated time. All Monday player interviews will take place in the WSU Athletic Media Relations Office (Bohler Athletic Complex Room 195) or a location specified by the SID. In addition, players will be available on the court Friday after practice during the Pac-10 season.

INTERNET ACCESS

Beasley Coliseum is fully equipped with wireless internet available to all media members both on the court and in the media work room. No password is required.

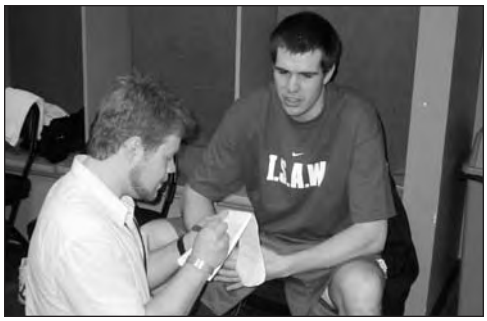

COUGARS ON THE WEB

For complete up-to-date information on all Cougar sports, www.wsucougars.com serves as the official website of Washington State Athletics.

The internet home of the Cougars is full of current information, including media notes, coaching staff and player biographies, rosters and updated statistics and results for the basketball squad and all NCAA sports at WSU. The official home of Cougar Athletics also provides fans with video and audio clips via Cougar All-Access, giving fans away from the Palouse an opportunity to feel apart of the action.

An avid golfer, Nameck donates his time and services to a number of charity golf events throughout the Northwest. He lives in Spokane with his wife Diane and daughter Kelsey.

US Bank Cougar Coaches Show with Tony Bennett

The US Bank Cougar Coaches Show with Tony Bennett airs every Tuesday beginning in December until the end of the Pac-10 season in early March from 6-7 p.m. Hosted by Bud Nameck, the Cougar Coaches Show broadcasts live at the Hilltop Restaurant in Pullman.

GAME DAY AT FRIEL COURT

"Tony Bennett has done the unthinkable – resurrecting the Washington State program from an abyss to national relevance. If there has been a better rebuilding job in the country I'd like to see someone come forward. Bennett stayed in Pullman because he believed in what he has accomplished and clearly felt he wasn't done. He's not."
